Lane Kiffin

Head Coach

@Lane_Kiffin

Overall Record: 116-53
Record at LSU: 0-0

Lane Kiffin, an elite offensive mind who built Ole Miss into a national powerhouse winning 55 games during his six years in Oxford, was named head football coach at LSU by director of athletics Verge Ausberry on Sunday, Nov. 30, 2025.

Kiffin comes to LSU – a program with four national titles to its credit, including three since 2003 – after guiding Ole Miss to double-digit wins four times in six years, including an 11-1 mark this year. Prior to his arrival in 2020, Ole Miss had only two 10-win seasons since 1972.

Kiffin joins the Tigers with a college head coaching career that spans 14 seasons and includes a 116-53 overall record. He's had seven 10-win seasons and led teams to nine bowl appearances. His teams have been ranked in the final AP Top 25 poll five times.

Previous head coaching stops for Kiffin include Tennessee (2009), Southern Cal (2010-13), and Florida Atlantic (2017-19). He also served as the head coach of the NFL's Oakland Raiders from 2007-08.

In six seasons in Oxford, Kiffin led the Rebels to unprecedented heights posting a 55-19 mark, leading teams to six consecutive bowl games (including three wins and two New Year's Six appearances), four 10-win seasons (including the first ever 11-win season in 2023, the first two 10-win regular seasons in program history in 2021 and 2023, and the first 11-win regular-season in program history in 2025), and several of the most statistically significant campaigns in Ole Miss football history.

The 55 wins are the most in a six-year period in Ole Miss history since the Rebels won 57 games from 1957-62, while his 50 victories since 2021 rank behind only Georgia and Alabama as the most in the SEC during that span.

Kiffin's Rebel teams have broken into the national top-10 in at least one poll in each of the last five seasons since 2021, the first such streak at Ole Miss since Rebel legend John Vaught's teams from 1960-64. Ole Miss has played 38 consecutive games as a Top 25 team and they have been ranked in 62 of its 74 games in six years under Kiffin. Ole Miss is currently ranked No. 7 in the College Football Playoff Rankings.

This year, Kiffin directed Ole Miss to an 11-1 mark, the first time in school history the Rebels have reached double-digit wins three consecutive seasons. The Rebels also won 11 regular-season games for the first time in program history with Top 25 victories over No. 4 LSU and No. 13 Oklahoma, running his wins over ranked opponents since his arrival to 10. In 2025, Kiffin became the first Ole Miss coach since Billy Brewer, who did it over 11 years, to beat LSU three times.

Ole Miss currently leads the SEC in total offense (498.1) and features the top running back in the league in Kewan Lacy, who has rushed for 1,279 yards and ranks No. 2 in the nation with 20 rushing touchdowns. With a first-time starter at quarterback, the Rebels are averaging 37 points per game.

Considered an offensive mastermind, Kiffin's Ole Miss squad is the only team in the SEC to rank among the Top 5 in the league in both scoring offense and total yards since 2020. The Rebels led the SEC in total offense four times in six years under Kiffin and they averaged 33 points or more each year, including league-best 38.6 points per game in 2024.

Kiffin's accomplishments at Ole Miss have been due in part to his recruiting prowess, the ability to identify talent and roster management. He signed four straight top-six transfer classes, including the No.1 class in 2024, while adding five consecutive Top 25 high school signing classes. Kiffin has sent 23 Ole Miss players to the NFL Draft, including eight in the 2025, the most for the school since the draft was reduced to seven rounds in 1994.

Kiffin led the Rebels to a 10-3 mark in 2024, setting school records for total yards (6,845), yards per play (7.3), passing yards (4,561), passing yards per game (350.8), sacks (52) and tackles for loss (120). The marquee win for the Rebels was a 28-10 win over No. 2 Georgia in Oxford.

The 2024 campaign was highlighted by first-round NFL Draft pick quarterback Jaxson Dart, who led the nation in total offense while dismantling several all-time Rebel records, and the stifling Ole Miss defense, which led the nation in both sacks and tackles for loss. Defensive tackle Walter Nolen earned consensus All-America honors and was selected in the first round of the 2025 NFL Draft.

Kiffin led the 2023 Rebels to the best season in Ole Miss history in terms of wins at the time, notching an 11-2 overall record capped by a 38-25 Peach Bowl victory over Penn State.

Kiffin guided the Rebels to a 10-3 record in 2021, the first 10-win regular season in school history. The Rebels finished the year ranked No. 11 in both the AP and AFCA Coaches Poll, their highest final ranking since 2016.

The offensive explosion by the Rebels came as no surprise, as Kiffin has shown a propensity in helping turn programs around. In his first seasons at FAU, USC and Tennessee, Kiffin's team improved in win differential (+3.33), scoring (+10.2), passing (+34.5 ypg) and rushing (+51.3 ypg).

In December 2016, Kiffin took over an FAU program that had won a total of nine combined games over the previous three seasons. Kiffin proceeded to take the Owls to new heights over his three years, including two Conference USA titles and two 10-win seasons.

Kiffin joined the FAU Owls after three seasons (2014-16) at Alabama, where he served as the Tide's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under head coach Nick Saban. He was a finalist for the Frank Broyles Award in 2014, which goes to the country's best assistant coach.

In 2016, he coached Jalen Hurts to SEC Offensive Player of the Year honors after leading the Crimson Tide to a 13-1 mark, the league title and appearance in the national championship game as a true freshman.

In 2015, Kiffin oversaw the development of quarterback Jake Coker, who finished his career 14-0 as a starter at Alabama, along with running back Derrick Henry, who rushed for 2,219 yards and 23 touchdowns on his way to claiming the Heisman Trophy.

Kiffin joined the Crimson Tide in 2014 and quickly developed first-time starter Blake Sims into a second-team All-SEC selection when he threw for a then-school record 3,487 yards.

Prior to joining Saban's staff at Alabama, Kiffin spent the three-plus previous seasons as the head coach at Southern Cal, posting a 28-15 mark. In 2012, wide receiver Marquise Lee was a unanimous first-team All-American and won the Biletnikoff Award while also being named the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year. Quarterback Matt Barkley, who won the Wuerffel Trophy, set conference records for passing yards and passing touchdowns.

Kiffin led the Trojans to a 10-2 record in 2011 and No. 6 final ranking in the AP Poll. The team won the Pac-12 South with a 7-2 mark and featured a 3,500-yard passer, a pair of 1,000-yard receivers and a 1,000-yard rusher. Three Trojans earned First-Team All-America honors (Matt Kalil, Robert Woods and T.J. McDonald).

In his first year as the head coach at USC, Kiffin led the Trojans to an 8-5 record.

Prior to his tenure at Southern Cal, Kiffin served as the head coach at Tennessee in 2009. He led the Volunteers to a second-place finish in the SEC East and an appearance in the Chick-fil-A Bowl. Under Kiffin, Tennessee's offense went from 17.3 to 29.3 points per game, while going from 268.8 to 383.5 total yards a contest.

Kiffin joined Tennessee after serving as head coach of the NFL's Oakland Raiders from 2007-08. At 31, he was the youngest head coach in the NFL's modern era.

Prior to his first head coaching job, Kiffin spent six years (2001-06) as an assistant coach for Pete Carroll at Southern California, including two years as the offensive coordinator (2005-06). He helped the Trojans capture two national championships and post a 65-12 record. As passing game coordinator in 2004, quarterback Matt Leinart won the Heisman Trophy when he passed for 3,322 yards and 33 touchdowns.

He took over as USC's offensive coordinator in 2005 and in two years at that position, the Trojans averaged 49.1 points and 579.8 yards per game.

Kiffin graduated from Fresno State in 1998 with a degree in recreational and leisure services after playing quarterback for three seasons (1994-96) for the Bulldogs. He began his coaching career as a student assistant at Fresno State under Pat Hill in 1997 and 1998. He moved on to Colorado State in 1999 as a graduate assistant. He spent the 2000 season as defensive quality control assistant with the Jacksonville Jaguars under Tom Coughlin.

Kiffin attended Bloomington Jefferson High in Bloomington, Minnesota, where he played football, basketball and baseball. He has two daughters, Landry and Presley, and one son, Knox.

Kevin Smith

Assistant Head Coach/Running Backs

Kevin Smith, a consensus All-America running back as a player at Central Florida, enters his first season at LSU and serves as the assistant head coach and running backs coach for the Tigers.

Smith joins the Tigers after spending the previous three seasons on Lane Kiffin's staff at Ole Miss, a span that saw the Rebels enjoy the best season in program history in 2025, going 13-2 and reaching the semifinals of the College Football Playoffs.

In 2025, the performance of All-SEC running back Kewan Lacy went a long way in helping the Rebels set several school marks. Ole Miss' 2025 offense led the SEC in total yards for the second straight season, averaging 489.7 total yards with a school-record 7,345 yards. The Rebels, behind Lacy, set the school record and paced the league with 39 rushing TDs.

In 2024, Ole Miss led the league and ranked No. 2 in the nation in total offense with 526.5 yards per game.

Lacy rushed for 1,567 yards – tying the school's single-season record - in 2025, finishing No. 2 in the SEC and third nationally. His 24 rushing TDs – also a school-record - led the conference and ranked No. 2 in the nation. Lacy also set the school mark for all-purpose yards with 1,744.

Smith's running backs helped contribute to several team program records during the 2024 campaign, including yards per play (7.3) and total yards (6,845). Senior Henry Parrish Jr. led the way with 678 yards and 10 scores on 130 carries before a season-ending injury at Arkansas late in the season. Parrish Jr.'s best game came against Middle Tennessee, where he scored four touchdowns alongside 165 yards rushing.

In 2023, Smith's running backs were part of a dynamic Rebel offense that pushed Ole Miss to its first 11-win season in program history, as well as a victory in the Peach Bowl. The Rebels were fifth in the SEC in rushing offense and scored 29 touchdowns on the ground, good for fifth in Ole Miss history.

Individually, the Rebel running backs were led by the powerful backfield duo of Quinshon Judkins and Ulysses Bentley IV. All-SEC honoree Judkins tallied his second consecutive 1,000-yard season with 1,158 yards and 15 TDs, making him one of eight in FBS history and one of two in SEC history alongside Herschel Walker with 1,000 yards and 15 rushing TDs across their freshman and sophomore seasons. Bentley added 540 yards and four scores on the ground, as well as 87 yards and a TD through the air.

In 2021 in Oxford, three of Smith's running backs ranked in the Top 25 of the Southeastern Conference in total rushing yards at the end of the regular season – Jerrion Early, Snoop Conner and Henry Parrish. Ole Miss ranked No. 12 in the FBS in rushing yards in 2021, amassing 2,829 yards on the ground for an average of 217.6 per game.

Smith made an immediate impact in Oxford with the SEC's leading rushing attack in 2020. Ole Miss averaged 210.6 yards per game on the ground to top the conference and rank 26th nationally. Rebel running backs scored 19 touchdowns over the 10-game season. The sophomore duo of Jerrion Ealy and Snoop Conner accounted for 17 of those touchdowns with Ealy's nine leading all Rebels and ranking sixth in the SEC. Under Smith's guidance, Ealy earned second team All-SEC honors from Pro Football Focus.

Smith served as running backs coach for Kiffin at FAU from 2017-19, helping capture a pair of Conference USA titles. Prior to Smith's arrival in Boca Raton, the Owls had tallied two seasons in which they had surpassed the 2,000-yard rushing mark as a team since the program started in 2001. Smith mentored the FAU running backs to three straight 2,000-yard rushing efforts.

Under Smith's tutelage at FAU, Devin Singletary became the first running back in NCAA history to score 29 touchdowns in a season since Smith did it himself as a star at UCF. Singletary, whose 33 total TDs rank third all-time in single-season touchdowns, was named C-USA's MVP in Smith's first year at FAU.

The 2017 FAU running back ranked No. 6 nationally in rushing yards per game (285.3). The No. 6 national ranking was a jump of 45 spots from the previous year. Singletary and Kerrith Whyte, Jr. were both drafted in the 2019 NFL Draft.

Smith is no stranger to rushing records. The Miami native set 17 school rushing records at UCF, including an FBS single-season record with 450 carries and 13 100-yards performances in 2007.

After earning first team All-America honors his junior season at UCF, Smith was selected in the 2008 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions in the third round. He went on to play five years for the Lions, amassing 17 rushing touchdowns while battling injuries during his career.

As a rookie for the Lions in 2008, Smith played in all 16 games – starting 12 – and rushed for 976 yards and eight touchdowns. He followed that with 747 yards and four TDs in 2009. He capped his NFL career appearing in 54 games (31 starts) and with 2,346 rushing yards and 17 rushing TDs.

Smith graduated from UCF in 2015 with a degree in liberal studies. Smith and his wife Tisha have six children: Kevin Jr., Dennis, Kai, Dennisha, Summer and Paris.

Blake Baker

Defensive Coordinator

Blake Baker enters his third season as LSU's defensive coordinator in 2026 after two years of drastically improving that side of the ball, both mentally and physically. Since returning to LSU, Baker has worked to instill the defensive traits that have been a hallmark of the program for many years with an aggressive front and press-man coverage at cornerback,

Baker's philosophy has helped restore the defensive mentality that was a staple during the championship runs of the tradition-rich program. His "Bayou Bandits" defense developed into one of the most improved units in the SEC a year ago as the Tigers were ranked among the best in the league in several key statistical categories.

Baker is one of four coaches on the defensive side of the ball who were retained when head coach Lane Kiffin took over the program in December of 2025.

With as many as eight first-time LSU starters on defense, the Tigers ranked No. 3 in the league in pass efficiency defense, No. 5 in scoring defense (19.85) and No. 6 in total defense (328.7). LSU also led the SEC in redzone defense and passes defended, and were the only team in the league with more pass interceptions (17) than touchdown passes allowed (14).

Baker's defense featured first-team All-Americas in cornerback Mansoor Delane and safety A.J. Haulcy, who were both All-SEC selections. Delane went on to become the No. 6 overall pick in the 2026 NFL Draft, while Haulcy was selected in the third round. Linebacker Harold Perkins was taken in the sixth round.

Despite playing much of the season without All-SEC linebacker Whit Weeks, the Tigers limited seven opponents to 17 points or less and held the SEC's top offense in Ole Miss to a season-low 24 points.

Since taking over in 2024, Baker's defense – in two seasons – has shaved off nearly 10 points and 86 total yards from its per game average when he became defensive coordinator. In two years under Baker, LSU has allowed 25 touchdown passes, which ranks No. 2 in the league over that span, trailing only South Carolina (23).

Baker is in his second stint at LSU as he previously coached the Tiger linebackers in 2021 where in one season, he transformed linebacker Damone Clark into an All-America. He arrived at LSU with eight years of defensive coordinator experience at the FBS level, including two years at Missouri (2022-23), two at Miami (2019-20) and four at Louisiana Tech (2015-18).

In his first year back at LSU, Baker began his transformation of the Tiger defense, a unit that shaved more than 50 yards per game from its average in 2023. Despite losing All-America candidate Perkins in game 5 vs. UCLA and starting defensive tackle Jacobian Guillory in game 2, Baker's defense still played a significant role in the Tigers winning nine games capped with a victory over Baylor in the Texas Bowl.

The injury of Perkins gave Whit Weeks the opportunity to flourish as the sophomore earned first-team All-SEC honors and finished second in the SEC in total tackles with 125. Meanwhile, edge rusher Bradyn Swinson earned second-team All-SEC honors and finished in the Top 10 in the league in sacks (8.5) and tackles for loss (13.0).

Baker's 2024 defense gave a glimpse into what lies ahead for the Tigers as the unit had five true freshmen combine for 12 starts over the course of the season. In LSU's bowl win over Baylor, the Tigers had as many as six freshmen (redshirt and true) on the field in the second half of the 44-31 victory.

Some of the defensive highlights for the Tigers in 2024 include limiting South Carolina to only nine second half points as LSU rallied from a 17-0 first half deficit to win; holding UCLA scoreless in the second half and to only 14 rushing yards; allowing only two second half field goals and one in overtime in a comeback win over Ole Miss; and keeping Oklahoma scoreless and to 123 total yards in the second half of a 37-17 win.

Prior to his arrival at LSU, Baker helped Missouri to an 11-win season and a Top 10 national ranking in 2023. Baker served as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Missouri for two seasons helping the Tigers win 18 games and appear in a pair of bowl games.

Baker's 2023 Missouri defense played a vital role in the Tigers going 11-2 overall and capping the season with a 14-3 win over No. 7 Ohio State in the Cotton Bowl. Missouri's 11 wins were the most for the school in nearly a decade. In the win over Ohio State, Missouri held the Buckeyes without a touchdown for the first time since the 2016 season.

As a unit in 2023, Missouri ranked No. 4 in the SEC in scoring defense (20.8 points per game) and No. 5 in the league in both rushing defense (122.8) and total defense (336.1). Missouri led the SEC and ranked No. 4 nationally in fumbles forced (17) and they were No. 11 in the nation in sacks with 39. The Tigers were also among the Top 20 in the nation in fumbles recovered (No. 16 with 10) and tackles for loss (No. 18 with 88).

Missouri's 2023 defense featured three players who earned All-SEC honors – defensive end Darius Robinson, linebacker Ty'Ron Hopper and defensive back Kris Abrams-Draine.

In his previous season at LSU in 2021, Baker's top linebacker was All-America Damone Clark, who went on to become a fifth round NFL Draft pick and is currently a starter for the Dallas Cowboys. Clark had a breakout season under Baker in 2021, ranking No. 2 in the nation in tackles with 135 tackles to go along with 5.5 sacks and 15.5 tackles for loss. Clark was a finalist for the Butkus Award that year.

Baker joined Miami in 2019 after four years as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Louisiana Tech. In his first year with the Hurricanes in 2019, he oversaw a Miami defense that ranked No. 13 nationally in total defense and 12th in the nation in yards allowed per play. The 2019 Hurricane defense also ranked among the Top 20 in the nation in rush defense (No. 10), redzone defense (No. 16) and pass defense (No. 18).

Two linebackers – Michael Pinckney and Shaq Quarterman – from Baker's 2019 defense earned All-ACC recognition. Quarterman was selected in the fourth round of the 2020 NFL Draft. His 2020 defense featured first team All-America defensive end Jaelan Phillips.

Prior to arriving in Coral Gables, Baker spent four seasons (2015-18) as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Louisiana Tech where the Bulldogs had one of the nation's top defenses when it came to impact plays. Baker worked alongside current LSU offensive coordinator Joe Sloan all four years at Louisiana Tech.

In 2018, Louisiana Tech ranked No. 4 in the nation in sacks per game, No. 12 in tackles for loss and No. 33 in turnovers gained.

Baker's star defender at Louisiana Tech was All-America Jaylon Ferguson, who led the nation in sacks (17.5) and ranked No. 2 nationally in tackles for loss with 26.5 in 2018. Ferguson was a third-round pick in the 2019 NFL Draft.

As a unit, Louisiana Tech led Conference USA in rush defense in 2015 and finished second in the league in total defense that year. The Bulldogs were third in C-USA in rush defense in 2016.

Prior to being elevated to defensive coordinator at Louisiana Tech, Baker coached the safeties for the Bulldogs in 2014. He spent the 2013 season as the safeties coach at Arkansas State.

Baker got his start in collegiate coaching at Texas, where he was a graduate assistant for the Longhorns from 2010-12. At Texas, Baker worked with the linebackers and defensive backs, two position groups that featured eight All-Big 12 selections over that span. He also coached All-America linebacker and Lott Trophy finalist Emmanuel Acho and 2011 Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year Quandre Diggs.

Prior to joining the Texas staff, Baker worked as wide receivers coach in 2019 at Clear Springs High School in Houston, Texas, before taking over duties as linebackers coach the following spring.

The Houston native was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at linebacker for Tulane from 2000-04. In 42 career games, he racked up 145 tackles, 14 tackles for loss and six sacks. In 2001 against LSU in Tiger Stadium, Baker recovered a fourth quarter fumble for the Green Wave. The following year he helped lead the Green Wave to a win in the 2002 Hawaii Bowl. He earned his bachelor's degree from Tulane in 2008.

Baker is married to the former Roslyn Jones of Mandeville, La., and the couple has a daughter, Anderson, and two sons, Byron and Brady. His wife is a former All-SEC soccer player for LSU.

Charlie Weis Jr.

Offensive Coordinator

Charlie Weis Jr., the play-caller for two of the most dynamic and prolific offenses in Ole Miss history, joined the Tigers in December of 2025 and serves as LSU's offensive coordinator. Weis, now in his ninth season as an FBS offensive coordinator, has directed offenses to average at least 445 yards and over 30 points per game six times during his career as a play-caller.

Weis has spent six years as Lane Kiffin's offensive coordinator, including the past four at Ole Miss, where he also served as quarterbacks coach developing two of the best at that position in program history in Trinidad Chambliss and Jaxson Dart.

In 2025, Weis was the play-caller for the best team in Ole Miss history as the Rebels went 13-2 overall and reached the semifinals of the College Football Playoffs after wins over Tulane (first round) and Georgia (quarterfinals).

In his four seasons with the Rebels, Ole Miss won 42 games and finished the season ranked in the top 11 of the AP Poll three times, including a No. 3 final ranking in 2025. The Rebels led the SEC in total offense in both 2024 and 2025 and finished No. 3 in the league in total offense in 2022 and 2023.

In his four seasons at Ole Miss, the Rebels set numerous school records, including total offense (7,345 in 2025), total yards per game (526.5 in 2024), passing yards (4,700 in 2025), passing yards per game (350.8 in 2024) and yards per play (7.3 in 2024).

As the Rebel offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2025, Weis oversaw an Ole Miss offense that led the SEC in total yards (7,354), yards per game (489.7), passing yards (4,700), passing yards per game (313.3) and total touchdowns (65). Ole Miss topped the 400-yard mark in total offense 13 times in 2025 and went over 500-yards five times.

In just one season, Weis helped develop quarterback Trinidad Chambliss into one of the best at his position in college football. Chambliss, a Division II transfer, threw for 3,937 yards and 22 touchdowns after taking over as the starter for the Rebels in week 3. He went on to earn SEC Newcomer of the Year honors and second-team All-SEC recognition.

In 2024, Weis' offensive shattered school records for total offense (6,845), yards per play (7.3), passing yards (4,561) and passing yards per game (350.8). Ole Miss' passing offense was among the best in the nation, leading the FBS in passing efficiency (176.6) while also leading the SEC in total offense with a school-record 526.5 yard per game.

Individually, senior quarterback Jaxson Dart earned first-team All-SEC honors and concluded his career as the best at his position statistically in several categories. Dart, a first round NFL Draft pick by the New York Giants, led the nation in total offense (4,774), total offense per game (367.2), passing efficiency (180.7), yards per attempt (10.8), 30-yard completions (38), 40-yard completions (19), 50-yard completions (12), 60-yard completions (9) and was tied for the national lead in 20-yard completions (74), while also leading the SEC in in passing yards (4,279; No. 3 FBS), passing yards per game (329.2; No. 3 FBS) and completion percentage (69.3; No. 9 FBS).

As a unit, Ole Miss ranked No. 2 nationally with a school-record 526.5 yards per game. The Rebels also ranked No. 2 among all FBS schools in passing offense (350.8), No. 3 in scoring offense (38.6), No. 4 in yards per completion (15.5) and No. 8 in completion percentage (68.0). For his efforts, Weis won the Graphite Award for best SEC Offensive Play-caller.

Dart left Ole Miss with single-season records in total offense (4,774), passing yards (4,279), passing efficiency (180.7), yards per pass attempt (10.8), yards per completion (15.5) and total offense per play (9.15), while tying the record for 400-yard passing games (3), while also breaking Ole Miss career marks in wins by a starting quarterback (28), winning percentage by a starting QB (.737; 28-10 as a starter), total offense (12,115), passing yards (10,617), passing efficiency (162.8), 300-yard passing games (15), rushing yards by a QB (1,498), total offense per play (8.14), and tied for the records in yards per pass attempt (9.5), 400-yard passing games (4).

Weis helped construct a powerful Rebel offense in 2023, helping spur Ole Miss to its first 11-win season in program history and a Peach Bowl victory over Penn State.

Ole Miss finished within the top-15 in the final FBS ranks in yards per completion (No. 10 at 14.5), passing efficiency (No. 12 at 162.9) and total offense (No. 13 at 461.9), while also leading the nation in fewest turnovers (7) and leading the SEC and ranking fifth nationally in turnover margin (+11). The Rebels ripped off five games with at least 500 yards of total offense, two with 600 and a whopping 706 vs. LSU -- the fifth-most in Ole Miss history.

Weis mentored star quarterback Dart to his best season to date, throwing for 3,364 yards (No. 5 in Ole Miss history), 23 touchdowns (No. 6 in Ole Miss history) and only five interceptions -- tied for the fewest in Ole Miss history in a single-season with at least 200 passing attempts. Dart was difficult to rattle, ending with the second-best passing efficiency rating in Ole Miss history at 162.4 and the third-best completion percentage at 65.1 percent.

In his first season with the Rebels in 2022, Weis helped oversee an Ole Miss offense that posted the No. 4 total offensive average in school history at 496.4 yards per game. Ole Miss ranked No. 8 in the FBS and third in the SEC in total offense, while leading the conference and ranking No. 3 nationally in rushing yards per game (256.6). The Rebels rushed for a school-record 3,336 yards in 2022.

Weis also helped Dart to effective first season with the Rebels, who ended the season sixth in the SEC in total offense (276.0) after leading the Rebels to an 8-5 mark with SEC wins over No. 7 Kentucky, Auburn, and Texas A&M.

Weis joined the Rebels after two seasons as the offensive coordinator at South Florida. At USF, Weis helped running back Jaren Mangham rush for a team-leading 671 yards and 15 touchdowns. His 15 touchdowns ranked third in the league and tied for second all-time in USF single-season history with Marlon Mack (2016).

Prior to South Florida, Weis Jr. spent the previous two seasons as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under Kiffin at FAU, where he helped lead the Owls to the 2019 Conference USA Championship with offenses that ranked in the top 20 nationally in scoring and total yards.

Weis' 2019 FAU offense ranked No. 14 nationally in scoring (36.4) and No. 27 in total yards (448.6). Sophomore quarterback Chris Robison led Conference USA in passing yards (3,701) and ranked No. 6 nationally. His 28 passing TDs ranked No. 2 in CUSA and No. 16 nationally. Weis' tight end Harrison Bryant claimed the Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end and was a unanimous first-team All-American after catching 65 passes for 1,004 yards and 7 TDs.

Weis' 2018 Owl offense led Conference USA in total offense (478.8) and rushing yards per game (241.8), and the Owls finished among the top 15 nationally in both categories (No. 14 in total offense) and No. 13 in rushing yards per game). Running back Devin Singletary finished No. 11 in the FBS in rushing yards (1,348) and yards per game (112.) and ranking No. 2 nationally in rushing touchdowns (22). He went on to be selected in the third round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the New York Giants.

Prior to arriving at FAU, Weis had stops with two NFL organizations, the Atlanta Falcons and New England Patriots, and three Power 4 schools - Alabama, Kansas and Florida.

Weis served as an offensive analyst for the defending NFC champion Falcons during the 2017 season, after a short stint as FAU's tight end coach from December 2016 to February 2017.

He served two seasons (2015-16) as an offensive analyst under head coach Nick Saban and offensive coordinator Kiffin at Alabama, working with the Tide's quarterbacks and running backs.

At Alabama, Weis was a part of a Crimson Tide program that went 30-2 record, winning two SEC Championships and a national championship. He worked directly with Heisman Trophy-winning running back Derrick Henry in 2015. Weis provided in-season details on opponent's defensive schemes, worked with in-game communications for adjustments, aided in national recruiting efforts for the running backs and assisted in the offseason fourth quarter program on speed and agility drills.

Prior to Alabama, Weis spent three seasons (2012-14) as an undergraduate team manager on his father Charlie Weis' staff at the University of Kansas. He assisted the position coaches in practice by administering and directing drills, ran position meetings for the quarterbacks, running backs and wide receivers and led opponent breakdown.

He gained additional experience in 2014 (July-August) as a New England Patriots Volunteer Training Camp intern. In that role, he worked with the offensive staff and assisted tight end coach Brian Daboll, creating highlight and lowlight cutups and coordinating quarterback practice production notes.

Weis also served as an offensive quality control coach at the University of Florida (2011), focusing his efforts with the wide receivers.

Weis, born April 29, 1993, earned his BS in psychology with a minor in sociology from the University of Kansas in 2015. He and his wife, Jen, have three children: Mav, Axe, and Cannon.

His father, Charlie, served as head coach at Notre Dame and Kansas and was a longtime NFL assistant, including serving as offensive coordinator for the New England Patriots (2000-04) during three Super Bowl winning seasons.

Chris Kiffin

Co-Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

Chris Kiffin, the younger brother of LSU head coach Lane Kiffin and son of coaching legend Monte Kiffin, joined the Tigers in December of 2025 and serves as co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach.

Kiffin, who has an extensive NFL background, comes to LSU after two seasons as an analyst for the best two-year stretch in Ole Miss history. Ole Miss went a combined 23-5 over the past two seasons, which included a 13-2 mark and reaching the semifinals of the College Football Playoffs in 2025.

Prior to re-joining the Ole Miss staff in 2024, Kiffin spent six years in the NFL coaching with the 49ers (2018-19), the Browns (2020-22) and the Texans (2023). Kiffin originally joined the Rebel staff in 2012, spending five years (2012-16) with the Rebels as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator.

During his first stint at Ole Miss, Kiffin helped produce some of the nation's top defenses, while also bringing nationally recognized signing classes to the program, including the nation's No. 4 rated class in 2016.

The 2013 National Recruiter of the Year by Scout.com, Kiffin helped the Rebels land a Top-5 class in 2013 and three other signing classes that were ranked among the Top 15 in the nation. He was tabbed one of the nation's Top 50 recruiters by 247Sports.com during that stretch.

On the field, Kiffin's 2015 defensive line was among the best in the nation, which helped the Rebel defensive rank among the top 3 in the SEC in tackles for loss (8.1/game; No. 7 in FBS), interceptions (15; T-No. 23 in FBS) and takeaways (23).

Kiffin helped develop Robert Nkemdiche into a second-team All-America and first-team All-SEC selection as a junior in 2015. With Nkemdiche leading the way, the Ole Miss defensive front combined for 24 sacks, which included a school-record tying 10 from Marquis Haynes. In two years under Kiffin, Haynes tallied 17.5 sacks.

Nkemdiche was later taken in the first round (No. 29 overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals.

In 2014, Kiffin helped develop one of the deepest and most talented defensive lines in college football, as the Rebels led the nation in scoring defense (16.0) and fewest touchdowns allowed (24), while also leading the SEC in interceptions (22), turnovers forced (32), tackles for loss (7.6/game) and opponent third-down conversion (33.0 percent).

With Kiffin guiding him, Nkemdiche made a major impact on the defensive line in 2013 by ranking third on the team in tackles for loss (8.0) and second among SEC freshmen in tackles for loss per game (0.73). Nkemdiche was named first-team Freshman All-America and Freshman All-SEC.

In his first season with the Rebels in 2012, Ole Miss ranked first in the SEC and fourth nationally in tackles for loss (7.9/game) and second in the SEC and No. 11 nationally in sacks (2.9/game). Those numbers were dramatic improvements over 4.75 TFLs and 1.08 sacks per game in 2011.

Kiffin spent the 2011 as Arkansas State's defensive line coach helping the Red Wolves post a 10-3 mark and capture the Sun Belt Conference title with a perfect 8-0 league mark. The 10-win season was the first for the program since 1975 and marked only the second time in school history Arkansas State won at least 10 games. The Red Wolves capped the year with only the second bowl appearance (GoDaddy.com Bowl) in program history and the first since 2005.

He helped coach an ASU defense that led the Sun Belt Conference in total defense (331.5) and scoring defense (20.8), ranking in the top 25 in the NCAA in both categories. Arkansas State also led the league and ranked No. 8 in the nation in tackles for loss (7.6) and tied for No. 15 in the nation in QB sacks (2.7) per game.

Kiffin joined the Arkansas State coaching staff after serving as an administrative assistant for the USC defense in 2010. The Trojans finished the year 8-5 with a 28-14 victory over UCLA in Rose Bowl stadium.

Prior to joining the staff at USC, Kiffin was in charge of offensive quality control at Nebraska from Feb. 2008 through Feb. 2010. During his two seasons at Nebraska, the Cornhuskers compiled a 20-8 record and played in two bowl games, including a 33-0 victory over Arizona in the 2009 Holiday Bowl.

Before Nebraska, Kiffin was a quality control intern with the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2006. During his time with the Bucs, Kiffin gained experience working with the defensive line during off-season OTAs and mini-camps.

A four-year football letterman as a defensive tackle at Colorado State from 2000-05 under then-head coach Sonny Lubick, Kiffin earned his bachelor's degree from the school in 2005. Following his time at Colorado State, he got his start in coaching at Idaho in 2005 where he served as a student assistant for two seasons.

Joe Cox

Co-Offensive Coordinator/Tight Ends

Joe Cox, a former starting quarterback at Georgia, enters his first season at LSU after spending two years on Lane Kiffin's staff at Ole Miss. Cox serves as LSU's co-offensive coordinator and tight ends coach, the same role he had on Kiffin's staff at Ole Miss.

In two years at Ole Miss, Cox was part of an offensive staff that helped produce record-setting numbers each season. In 2025, the Rebels – behind the SEC's top-rated offense, enjoyed the best season in school history, going 13-2 and reaching the semifinals of the College Football Playoffs.

Ole Miss led the SEC in total yards (7,354), yards per game (489.7), passing yards (4,700), passing yards per game (313.3) and total touchdowns (65). Ole Miss topped the 400-yard mark in total offense 13 times in 2025 and went over 500-yards five times.

Cox's tight ends combined to catch 66 passes for 924 yards and nine TDs with Dae'Quan Wright leading the way with 39 receptions for 635 yards and five scores. Wright earned second-team All-SEC honors and later signed a free agent contract with the Philadelphia Eagles.

In 2024, Cox was part of a staff that orchestrated a record-setting offense at the time as the Rebels accumulated program marks for total offense (6,845), yards per play (7.3), passing yards (4,561) and passing yards per game (350.8). The passing yards and passing yards per game remain a school record.

Ole Miss tight ends, led by Wright and Caden Prieskorn, tallied 803 receiving yards and seven touchdowns on 55 catches.

Cox, a Georgia letterwinner and former quarterback for the Bulldogs, joined Ole Miss after two seasons on Nick Saban's staff at Alabama.

In 2023, Cox's tight ends unit was led by Amari Niblack, who tallied 20 receptions for 327 yards and four touchdowns. In his first year, he helped redshirt senior Cameron Latu reach new heights for the Alabama offense with a career-high 30 receptions for 377 yards and four touchdowns. The converted outside linebacker was selected with the No. 101 overall pick in the third round of the 2023 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers.

Prior to his time in Tuscaloosa, Cox spent one season coaching tight ends for his hometown Charlotte 49ers.

Cox spent the 2020 season coaching wide receivers on Will Muschamp's staff at South Carolina. USC's receivers were led by Shi Smith who hauled in 57 receptions for 644 yards and a team-high four touchdowns in only nine games.

Before South Carolina, Cox spent five years at Colorado State on the staff, first as a graduate assistant in 2015 followed by three seasons (2016-18) coaching tight ends before moving to wide receivers in 2019.

Cox helped propel a Rams' offense that turned in two of the top five most productive seasons in school history as the Rams averaged 35.3 points in 2016 and 33.4 points the following year. The Rams tallied a school-record 492.5 total yards per game after posting the fourth-best mark in program history with 462.5 total yards per game in 2016.

In 2019, the Rams ranked No. 14 in the nation in passing offense, averaging 305.3 yards per game.

Receiver Warren Jackson averaged 111.9 receiving yards per game, fourth in the country, on 77 receptions with eight touchdowns in 10 games. True freshman wideout Dante Wright added 57 catches for 805 yards and four scores.

In 2018, with Cox guiding a talented group of tight ends, the Rams ranked 13th in FBS in passing offense (304.9), registered the fourth-highest mark in school history for passing touchdowns with 26.

The tight end group played a significant role in the performance of the Rams' record-setting offense in 2017 as Dalton Fackrell tied for second on the team with six touchdown receptions.

In 2016 the Rams' tight end corps was instrumental in helping the Rams to rank fourth in FBS in red-zone scoring (94.6 pct.), as well as 12th in passing efficiency, 28th in scoring offense (35.3) and 30th in total offense (462.5). The unit also contributed to the Rams' stellar pass protection, which resulted in a No. 8 national ranking for fewest sacks allowed (1.0), including just one total in the final six games of the season.

Cox was part of the coaching staff at Mallard Creek High School in Charlotte, N.C., from 2013-14, helping the school win back-to-back state championships. He joined the Mallard Creek staff in 2013 as quarterbacks coach before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2014.

Following a decorated prep career, Cox enrolled at Georgia where he earned the starting quarterback role for the Bulldogs in 2009. He completed 185-of-331 passes for 2,584 yards and 24 touchdowns, helping Georgia to an 8-5 mark and a win in the Independence Bowl. The 2,584 passing yards ranked No. 2 in school history at the time.

In a win over Arkansas in 2009, Cox earned Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week honors after passing for 375 yards and five touchdowns in the win over the Razorbacks. For his career, Cox threw for 3,016 yards and 29 touchdowns.

Cox was the 2004 state of North Carolina Gatorade Player of the Year, the AP Prep Player of the Year, and earned Parade Magazine All-America honors as a senior at Independence (N.C.) High School.

Cox and his wife, Erica, and have one daughter, Avery, and twin boys, Jace and Tate. A native of Charlotte, N.C., Cox earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from Georgia in 2009.

Houston spent the 2020-2023 seasons as a special teams assistant coach for Bill Belichick at the New England Patriots.

Prior to his stint in the NFL, Houston spent three seasons (2016-18) at Iowa State as both special teams coordinator (2018) and associate for quality control (2016-17). In 2019, he served as an analyst for Nick Saban at Alabama.

In his three seasons at Iowa State, Cyclone kickers made 66-of-85 field goals (77.6 pct.) and had players earn first-team and second-team All-Big 12 honors. Walk-on kicker Connor Assalley took over placekicking duties and excelled under Houston's coaching. Assalley hit 16 field goals, tying for sixth on ISU's season list, and began his career making his first eight field goal attempts, the fifth-best string in school history.

Houston was an associate for quality control for special teams from 2016-17, mentoring a pair of All-Big 12 kickers in Cole Netten (2016) and Garrett Owens (2017). Houston's work with Netten, a first-team All-Big 12 kicker, helped produce the school record for field goal percentage (94.1 pct.) in a season, connecting on 16-of-17 attempts.

Owens was an honorable mention All-Big 12 kicker in 2017, connecting on 77.3 percent (17-of-22) of his field goals for the fifth-best single-season percentage in school history. Owens' 17 field goals made ranked 37th nationally and tied for third on ISU's season record book.

In the season finale vs. West Virginia, Nwangwu ran back a 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, the third-longest return in school history. Nwangwu was named to a number of freshman All-America teams as a kick returner.

Trever Ryen was one of the best punt returners in the nation in 2016 and 2017, averaging 16.50 per return in 2016, No. 3 nationally. The following year, he ranked No. 20 in the nation with a 10.1 punt return average. His 13.4 career punt return average ranked No. 4 all-time in school history.

Houston also had stops at Toledo (2015) where he was a quality control assistant and El Camino College (2012-14) as special teams coordinator.

He played professionally for the Chicago Rush and Nebraska Danger of the Arena Football League (AFL). Houston tied the league record with 11 PATs in a game during the 2012 season.

A native of Redondo Beach, California, Houston earned All-America honors at El Camino College in 2006 as a freshman before transferring to Southern Cal in 2007. He served as Lane Kiffin's starting kicker as a redshirt senior in 2010 in what was Kiffin's first season as head coach of the Trojans.

George McDonald

Passing Game Coordinator/Wide Receivers

George McDonald, a 25-year coaching veteran, enters his first season at LSU after serving on Lane Kiffin's staff at Ole Miss for the past two years. McDonald serves as LSU's passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach, the same duties he had while at Ole Miss.

In two years at Ole Miss, McDonald helped orchestrate two of the most productive offenses in program history as the Rebels wracked up 1,056 points and over 14,000 total yards during his 28 games in Oxford.

In 2025, McDonald played a key role in the best season in Ole Miss history as the Rebels posted a 13-2 mark and reached the semifinals of the College Football Playoffs following wins over Tulane and Georgia. Ole Miss set single-season school records for points (554), total yards (7,345) and passing yards (4,700) in 2025 as the Rebels ranked No. 2 nationally in total offense (489.7), No. 3 in passing offense (313.3) and No. 10 in points per game (36.9).

Wide receiver De'Zhaun Stribling was selected in the second round of the 2026 NFL Draft after catching 55 passes for 811 yards and six touchdowns for the Rebels last year. He was among five different Ole Miss players with at least 39 receptions and over 600 receiving yards for the Rebels a year ago.

In 2024, Ole Miss went 10-3 and had, at the time, the most productive offense in program history. Ole Miss' 2024 offense set then-school marks for total offense (6,845), yards per play (7.3), passing yards (4,561) and passing yards per game (350.8). Ole Miss' passing offense was among the best in the nation, leading the FBS in passing efficiency (176.6) while also leading the SEC in total offense (526.5 ypg, FBS No. 2), passing offense (350.8 ypg, FBS No. 2), scoring offense (38.6 ppg, FBS No. 3), yards per completion (15.5, FBS No. 4) and completion percentage (68.0, FBS No. 8).

McDonald's wide receivers were a big part of eventual first round NFL Draft pick Jaxson Dart's success. Tre Harris was off to a historic start to 2024 before injuries sidelined him, ending the season with 1,030 yards and seven touchdowns on 60 receptions in just eight games played. Harris, an All-American and Biletnikoff semifinalist who went on to be a second-round draft pick of the Los Angeles Chargers.

McDonald also mentored fellow NFL Draft selection Jordan Watkins, whose 2024 highlight was a record-breaking performance at Arkansas where he set the Ole Miss single-game records in receiving yards (254) and receiving touchdowns (5) -- one of two 250-yard, five-touchdown performances in SEC history alongside Alabama Heisman Trophy winner DeVonta Smith.

McDonald helped lead a resurgence for the wide receiver position at Illinois, where he played the position for the Fighting Illini from 1995-98. He helped Illinois' offense rank as one of the best in the Big Ten in 2023, as the Illini finished in the top five in the conference in passing (3rd), total yards (t-4th), and scoring (5th) and led the Big Ten West in all three categories.

Isaiah Williams, one of the top receivers in the nation, was named All-Big Ten first team after leading the Big Ten and ranking 13th in the nation in receptions (82) and ranking second in the Big Ten and 15th in the nation in receiving yards (1,055) during the regular season.

All three wide receiver starters for McDonald had over 500 receiving yards, as Casey Washington totaled 670 yards and three touchdowns and Pat Bryant added 560 receiving yards and a team-best seven touchdowns on the season. Illinois was the only Power-5 program with a 1,000-yard receiver and two other receivers over 500 yards in 2023.

McDonald helped Illinois to one of its best seasons in over a decade in 2022, as the Illini finished the regular season 8-4 and earned a trip to the ReliaQuest Bowl, Illinois' first January bowl game in 15 years. The Illini were ranked in the AP Top 25 for five straight weeks and Illinois was ranked in the College Football Playoff rankings for the first time in school history.

McDonald's group was led by All-Big Ten wide receiver Williams, who ranked in the top 10 in the Big Ten in receptions per game (2nd, 6.3), receiving yards (7th, 715), receiving touchdowns (10th, 5), and receiving yards per game (10th, 55). Illinois was the only team in the Big Ten that featured four wide receivers with 30+ receptions.

McDonald helped Illinois to a pair of road ranked wins in his first season back in Champaign in 2021, first a nine OT thriller at No. 7 Penn State in the longest game in college football history, then a win at No. 20 Minnesota. During Illinois' game at No. 18 Iowa, McDonald served as head coach while Bret Bielema was out due to COVID-19 protocols.

Prior to Illinois, McDonald served in a variety of roles at North Carolina State. His six-year stint at NC State began in 2015 as wide receivers coach (2015-20) and watched his role grow to passing game coordinator (2017-18, 2020), recruiting coordinator (2019-20), co-offensive coordinator (2019) and assistant head coach (2020) of the Wolfpack. Under McDonald's tutelage, for the first time in ACC history, NC State had a pair of wide receivers named to the All-ACC first team in 2018 when Kelvin Harmon and Jakobi Meyers both topped 1,000 receiving yards.

McDonald's first role as primary play-caller at the Power-5 level came as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Syracuse during the 2013-14 seasons.

Before Syracuse, McDonald served as passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach at Miami from 2011-12. Under McDonald's tutelage, wideout Phillip Dorsett posted the ninth-most single season receiving yards in school history in 2012. He also coached future NFL players Tommy Streeter, LaRon Byrd, Allen Hurns and Travis Benjamin with the Canes.

McDonald made the jump to the NFL's Cleveland Browns from 2009-10 as wide receivers coach under Eric Mangini. McDonald spent two seasons, 2007-08, at the University of Minnesota coaching wide receivers, where he helped mentor first-team All-Big Ten performer Eric Decker.

Before Minnesota, McDonald was offensive coordinator and coached wideouts at Western Michigan in 2005 and 2006. One of his players at WMU was 2005 MAC Player of the Year, Biletnikoff Award semifinalist and All-American, Greg Jennings. Jennings hauled in 74 receptions for 1,092 yards and 11 touchdowns for the Broncos.

In 2004, McDonald spent a season at Stanford as tight ends coach where he coached Mackey Award finalist Alex Smith, who was selected in the third round of the 2005 NFL Draft.

McDonald earned his first full-time position at Northern Illinois from 2001-03. While in DeKalb, he coached First-Team All-MAC receiver, and current Minnesota head coach, P.J. Fleck, second-team All-American Dan Sheldon, and All-American Darrell "The Thrill" Hill.

The Ft. Wayne, Indiana, native began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Ball State in 2000.

McDonald was a four-year letterwinner at receiver for the Fighting Illini and completed his Illinois football career with 57 receptions for 589 yards and four touchdowns. He led the Big Ten in kickoff return yardage in 1996 (736) while returning 57 kickoffs for 1,276 yards (22.4 avg.) during his career. McDonald also ran track his freshman and senior years, earning All-Big Ten honors his senior year when he set an Illinois record with a time of 6.74 in the 60 meters, a mark that still ranks seventh on the Illini top times list, to win the 1999 Big Ten Indoor Championships 60m title.

McDonald graduated from Buena Park High School in California before his collegiate career at Illinois. He earned his bachelor's degree in health planning and administration from Illinois in 1999. McDonald and his wife, Heather, have two sons, Roman and Maverick.

In his four years at South Carolina, Lucas helped develop some of the best defensive players in program history which includes 2024 Nagurski Award winner in Kyle Kennard along with Dylan Stewart, who was a finalist for the Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year in 2024.

In his four seasons at South Carolina, Lucas produced three All-SEC performers including the SEC Defensive Player of the Year and unanimous All-America Kennard in 2024. Stewart earned second-team All-SEC honors in 2025 after being named Freshman All-SEC in 2024. Brian Thomas earned third-team all-league honors in 2025.

In 2025, edge rushers Stewart and Thomas combined for 24 tackles for loss, 12.5 sacks and 22 quarterback hurries for a South Carolina defense that led the league in turnovers forced with 22.

Lucas mentored arguably the nation's best tandem of edge rushers in 2024 in senior Kennard and true freshman Stewart. Kennard, who was later a fourth-round pick in the 2025 NFL Draft, became the school's first winner of the Nagurski Award as the nation's top defensive player after tallying 15.5 tackles for loss and 11.5 sacks.

Lucas got his start with the Ravens in 2016, holding various roles on the defensive side of the ball until 2020, when he worked with the defensive line under former LSU assistant coach Joe Cullen. With Lucas on staff from 2016-20, the Ravens led the NFL in total defense (314.1 yards per game), allowed the second-fewest rushing yards per game (97.1) and produced the third-most takeaways (126).

Lucas worked closely with several Pro Bowl players while in Baltimore, including defensive lineman Calais Campbell (2020), outside linebacker Matthew Judon (2019 and 2020) and linebacker C.J. Mosley (2017 and 2018).

In 2020, Lucas helped the Ravens advance to the AFC Divisional round as their defense allowed the second-fewest points (18.9) and seventh-fewest yards (329.8) per game in the NFL. He was promoted from defensive quality control coach to defensive assistant/linebackers coach in 2019 and assisted with the team's linebackers, which helped the team allow the NFL's third-fewest points per game (17.6) and the fourth-fewest yards per game (300.6). Another member of the LSU coaching staff with strong ties to Louisiana, Olsen previously spent the 2021 season with the Tigers as an analyst with his focus on the linebackers. Olsen has 11 years of Louisiana college football coaching experience.

Olsen's 2025 safety room produced first-team All-America A.J. Haulcy, who later went on to be selected in the third round of the 2026 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts. Haulcy finished second on the team in tackles (88) to go along with three interceptions. Haulcy also earned first-team All-SEC recognition from both the SEC Coaches and the Associated Press.

Olsen's safety group helped the Tigers rank among the best in the SEC in 2025 as the Tigers led the league in redzone defense and finished No. 3 in pass efficiency defense. LSU was also the only team in the SEC to finish the season with more interceptions (17) than touchdown passes allowed (14). In 14 games, LSU allowed two or fewer touchdown passes in 13 games which included one TD pass in six games and no TD passes four times.

In his first season as LSU's safeties coach in 2024, Olsen's group featured five different starters, including true freshman Dashawn Spears, who started in wins over South Carolina, UCLA and South Alabama. Junior Jardin Gilbert led the group with 55 tackles, while senior Major Burns added 47 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss and created three turnovers.

Olsen coached the linebackers at Missouri for two years (2022-23) helping Mizzou to its best season in a decade in 2023 when the Tigers won 11 games and finished the year ranked No. 9 in the nation. Missouri capped the 2023 season with a 14-3 win over Ohio State in the Cotton Bowl as the Tigers held the Buckeyes without a touchdown for the first time since 2016.

At Missouri, Olsen helped develop Ty'Ron Hopper into a two-time All-SEC selection and he was a finalist for the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker in 2023.

In his previous season at LSU in 2021, Olsen assisted with the development of Damone Clark into an All-America selection. Clark, now a starter for the Dallas Cowboys, ranked No. 2 in the nation in tackles per game with 11.42 in 2023.

Prior to joining the LSU staff, Olsen spent four years (2017-20) at Northwestern State where he coached linebackers, safeties and served as special teams coordinator during his time with the Demons.

While part of the Northwestern State staff, Olsen was named a member of the American Football Coaches Association's "35 Under 35" in 2018.As part of the 35 Under 35, Olsen took part in the AFCA's Coaches Leadership Institute in San Antonio, Texas.

Prior to arriving in Monroe, Olsen spent the first half of 2015 at Southwestern Oklahoma State as the defensive line coach.

In 2014, Olsen had his first coaching experience in Louisiana, serving as the outside linebackers coach at Nicholls State.

Olsen's first collegiate coaching experience came at his alma mater, Valley City State University in Valley City, North Dakota. In his lone season (2013) as a coach at Valley City State, Olsen developed a pair of all-conference defensive linemen, Matt Craft and Dwayne Fearon.

Olsen was a four-year letterman at Valley City State as a defensive end/outside linebacker. Olsen was a team captain for the Vikings during the 2012 season, helping Valley City State post a 7-3 overall record and a 6-1 mark in the North Star Athletic Association.

Swinson led the Tigers and rated among the league leaders in sacks (8.5) and tackles for loss (13.0) on his way to earning second-team All-SEC honors. In addition, senior Sai'vion Jones had his most productive season at LSU with 40 tackles, 4.5 sacks and 7.5 tackles for loss. Jones took part in the Senior Bowl, while Swinson was invited to the East-West Shrine Bowl following the season. Jones (3rd round, Broncos) and Swinson (5th round, Patriots) were both selected in the 2025 NFL Draft.

Peoples, who previously coached at Tulane and Northwestern State, joined the Tigers after two seasons at Missouri where he worked alongside current LSU defensive coordinator Blake Baker and safeties coach Jake Olsen.

In 2023, Peoples helped Missouri to its best season in over a decade as the Tigers won 11 games and finished the year ranked No. 9 in the nation. Mizzou capped the year with a 14-3 win over Ohio State in the Cotton Bowl, holding the Buckeyes without a touchdown for the first time since 2016.

Missouri's 2023 defense ranked No. 4 in the SEC in points allowed (20.8 points per game) and No. 5 in the league in both rushing defense (122.8) and total defense (336.1). Missouri led the SEC and ranked No. 4 nationally in fumbles forced (17) and they were No. 11 in the nation in sacks with 39. The Tigers were also among the Top 20 in the nation in fumbles recovered (No. 16 with 10) and tackles for loss (No. 18 with 88).

Peoples had a pair of defensive ends earn first-team All-SEC honors in back-to-back years in 2022 and 2023. Darius Robinson earned All-SEC recognition in 2023, while Isaiah McGuire made all-league honors in 2022. Both players ranked among the top five in the SEC in sacks during their all-conference seasons.

Robinson went on to be selected in the first round of the 2024 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals, while McGuire was taken in the fourth round of the 2023 NFL Draft by Cleveland.

Prior to his two years at Missouri, Peoples coached the defensive line at Indiana from 2020-21. In 2020, Indiana led the Big Ten in sacks for the first time in school history and defensive tackle Jerome Johnson earned first-team All-Big Ten honors – a first for the school at that position in nearly 30 years.

The 2020 abbreviated season saw the Hoosiers post a 6-2 record with an undefeated conference showing and a trip to the Outback Bowl.

Before Indiana, Peoples spent four seasons as Tulane's defensive line coach where he helped the Green Wave to back-to-back bowl wins for the first time in program history in 2018 and 2019. Three-time all-conference defensive end Patrick Johnson led the team in sacks both years and finished his career with 24.5, which sits atop the Tulane record book.

Johnson became just the third player in school history with 10 sacks in a season in 2018 (10.5) and his .082 sacks per game ranked 12th in the FBS. Tackle Cameron Sample (fourth round, Cincinnati) and Johnson (seventh round, Philadelphia) were selected in the 2021 NFL Draft. The duo became the third and fourth NFL standouts he tutored over his stint in New Orleans.

Minnesota drafted end Ade Aruna in the 2018 NFL Draft, while the Los Angeles Rams locked up tackle Tanzel Smart in 2017. The 2018 line tallied 25.5 sacks, 42.5 tackles for loss, and 230 tackles. Tulane finished with the third-most sacks in program history and averaged 3.15 per game, which ranked eighth nationally. The Green Wave also finished 24th nationally in red zone defense.

Prior to Tulane, Peoples spent two seasons at Georgia Southern University (2014-15). The Eagles won 18 games during his tenure with a win in the GoDaddy Bowl and a Sun Belt Conference Championship. His line guided GSU to the top spot in the league and 24th nationally in rushing defense (130.9), and second in the conference and 24th nationally in total defense (338.1). He mentored a pair of all-league honorees as Georgia Southern earned its first bowl win in its first bowl appearance.

Before a one-year stop as defensive line coach at UAB (2013), Peoples worked at the University of Arkansas (2010-12). He served as the director of high school relations in 2010 and then moved to the defensive line his final two seasons. The Razorbacks finished 19th in the country in rushing defense (124.1) and 24th in sacks (2.58) in 2012.

Arkansas collected consecutive 10-win campaigns for just the third time in school history and made back-to-back BCS bowl appearances in 2010 (Sugar Bowl) and 2011 (Cotton Bowl). The 2011 team capped an 11-2 campaign with a No. 5 national ranking.

In eight seasons at Arkansas State (2002-09), Peoples developed 11 All-Sun Belt Conference selections and several award winners, including Corey Williams (2002, 2003), Jon Bradley (2002, 2003) Myron Anderson (2005), Jonathan Najm (2006), Jammarrow James (2006), Alex Carrington (2008, 2009), and Bryan Hall (2009).

Carrington, the Sun Belt's 2008 Defensive Player of the Year, was drafted in the third round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills, while both Williams and Bradley spent multiple seasons in the NFL. Hall was a member of the Baltimore Ravens Super Bowl XLVII championship team. Arkansas State also went to a bowl game for the first time since 1970 when they faced Southern Miss in the New Orleans Bowl in 2005.

He also spent time working with the defensive lines and special teams units at Northwestern State (1996, 2001), with the Las Vegas Outlaws (2000), at Northern Arizona (1999), Central Missouri (1997-98) and Blinn College (1995).

In 2003, Peoples was selected from 500 coaches as one of the recipients of the AFLAC National Assistant Coach of the Year Award, recognizing coaches who made a significant contribution to their teams.

A four-year starter at linebacker at Carroll College in Helena, Mont., Peoples was a two-time all-league pick and all-district selection as a senior. He led the Saints to the 1989 Frontier Conference crown and a berth in the NAIA playoffs before he launched his coaching career at his alma mater (1993-94).

Corey Raymond

Secondary

Corey Raymond, who has long been praised for his development of LSU's defensive backs and the architect of "DBU", enters his 13th season as an on-field coach for the Tigers. Raymond, in his third stint on the LSU coaching staff, enters his third season as LSU's secondary coach.

Raymond, a former LSU standout who spent six years in the NFL, first joined the Tiger staff as an intern in 2006 followed by assistant strength coach from 2007-08. After two seasons at Utah State (2009-10) and a year at Nebraska (2011), Raymond returned to LSU in 2012 as defensive backs coach.

Raymond remained on the LSU staff through the 2021 season before serving for two years as the assistant head coach and secondary coach at Florida in 2022-23. Raymond rejoined LSU in 2024 as secondary coach and is one of four coaches on the defensive side of the ball who were retained by new head coach Lane Kiffin.

In his 13 seasons coaching the secondary for the Tigers, Raymond has produced nine first-team All-Americas and the 2019 Jim Thorpe Award winner in Grant Delpit in 2019. His list of first-team All-Americas increased by two in 2025 with cornerback Mansoor Delane and safety A.J. Haulcy both earning the honor.

Raymond's first-team All-Americas include: Eric Reid (2012), Jalen Mills (2015), Jamal Adams (2016), Tre'Davious White (2016), Greedy Williams (2018), Delpit (2018 and 2019), Derek Stingley Jr. (2019, 2020), Delane (2025) and Haulcy (2025).

Under Raymond, LSU's secondary has sent 18 players to the NFL Draft, including five first rounders – Stingley (2022), Adams and White (2017), Reid (2013), and Delane (2026), along with five second round picks that include Delpit (2020), Kristen Fulton (2020), Donte Jackson (2019), Williams (2018) and Jalen Collins (2015).

Other NFL Draft picks who played under Raymond at LSU include: third rounders in Cordale Flott (2022), and Haulcy (2026); fourth rounders in Rashard Robinson (2016) and Jay Ward (2023); fifth rounder Tharold Simon (2013), sixth rounder Jacoby Stevens (2021) and seventh rounders Jalen Mills (2016) and Kary Vincent (2021).

In 2025 with four first-time LSU starters in the secondary, the Tigers were the only team in the SEC to have more interceptions (17) than touchdown passes allowed. LSU also ranked No. 3 in the SEC in pass efficiency defense, finished No. 5 in scoring defense (19.85) and No. 6 in total defense (328.7). LSU's secondary produced first-team All-SEC selections in Delane and Haulcy along with DJ Pickett, who earned Freshman All-SEC recognition. Delane led the SEC in passes defended with 13 as the Tigers led the league in passes defended per game with 5.3.

In 2024, his first year back with the Tigers, Raymond oversaw the development of senior cornerback Zy Alexander and sophomore Ashton Stamps. Stamps finished third in the SEC in passes defended, while Alexander led the Tigers with two interceptions. Alexander was invited to the East-West Shrine Bowl following the season.

As part of LSU's national championship team in 2019, Stingley Jr. led the SEC in interceptions with six and earned SEC Newcomer of the Year honors to go with his first team All-America awards. Delpit also earned All-America honors in 2019 as well as being tabbed as the winner of the Jim Thorpe Award.

In 2019, the Tigers, for the second straight season, led the SEC in interceptions with 17 and LSU ranked No. 2 in the league in pass efficiency defense, allowing opponents to complete just 50.7 percent of its passes – the best percentage in the league.

In 2018, Raymond continued the development of Williams, who earned first team All-America honors and was a finalist for the Thorpe Award. Raymond's impact was also evident with the emergence of Fulton into one of the top cornerbacks in college football after sitting out the previous two years.

LSU led the SEC interceptions with 17 and ranked second in the league in pass defense efficiency in 2018. LSU was the only team in the SEC to hold opponents to less than 50 percent completion percentage for the season.

In 2017, LSU's secondary featured a pair of second team All-Americans in Williams and Jackson. Williams had a breakout year with the Tigers in 2017, leading the SEC in interceptions (6) and finishing No. 2 in the conference in passes defended (17). As a unit, LSU allowed only 11 passing touchdowns, which was the second-lowest total in the SEC, and the Tigers were No. 2 in the league in pass efficiency defense.

In 2016, Raymond's secondary allowed only nine passing touchdowns all season and ranked No. 3 in the Southeastern Conference in yards per game at 197.2. White, who ranked No. 2 in the conference in passes defended with 16, along with Adams were both named first team All-SEC. For the second-straight year, Adams led all LSU defensive backs with 76 tackles.

LSU's 2015 secondary featured Mills, a first team All-America selection despite missing the first five games of the season with a broken ankle. Mills was joined in the secondary by White and Adams, who were both second team All-SEC selections. Adams led all Tiger defensive backs with 67 tackles and four interceptions.

In 2014, LSU's secondary featured another young, but talented group as the starting lineup included a true freshman, one sophomore, two juniors and a senior. The play of LSU's secondary was prominent in the Tigers leading the SEC in total defense (316.8 yards per game), pass defense (164.2 yards per game) and pass efficiency defense (101.6 rating). LSU allowed an SEC-best 10 passing touchdowns in 2014 and the Tigers were the only team in the league to hold teams to fewer than 200 completions.

LSU ranked No. 4 in the SEC in pass defense in 2013, allowing 197.5 yards per game. The Tigers limited opponents to 15 touchdown passes and ranked second in the league in yards allowed per attempt (6.4) and third in the conference in completion percentage at 56.0 percent.

In his first year back with the Tigers in 2012, Raymond coached safety Reid to first team All-America honors. Reid was later chosen No. 18 overall in the NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers. Starting cornerback Tharold Simon was picked in the fifth round by the Seattle Seahawks.

As a unit in 2012, LSU's secondary, with a pair of first-time starters, combined for 15 interceptions and helped the Tigers rank No. 11 nationally in pass efficiency defense.

Raymond returned to LSU after spending the 2011 season as the secondary coach at Nebraska. In his one season with the Cornhuskers, Raymond coached a Nebraska secondary that featured the 2011 Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year in Alfonzo Dennard. After inheriting a group that lost four starters from the season before, including three NFL Draft picks, Raymond's secondary helped Nebraska rank No. 18 in the nation in pass defense in 2011.

Prior to his one-year stay in Lincoln, Raymond served as the cornerbacks coach for two seasons at Utah State. Raymond's top pupil at Utah State was that of Curtis Marsh, who earned All-WAC honors and later went on to become a third-round pick in the NFL Draft. Raymond served on the LSU staff for three years from 2006-08 before taking the job at Utah State.

During his three years on the LSU staff from 2006-08, Raymond was part of two BCS bowl victories, including a 38-24 win over Ohio State in the BCS National Championship. LSU's defense ranked No. 3 nationally in both 2006 and 2007 as the Tigers combined to post a 23-4 record during that span.

Prior to joining the LSU staff in 2006, Raymond coached at the high school level for three years in his hometown of New Iberia. Raymond was the defensive coordinator at New Iberia High School in 2003 and then held the same position at Westgate High School in 2004-05.

Raymond was a three-year starter in the secondary for the Tigers from 1989-91. He capped his LSU career with 185 tackles and eight interceptions. Following his career with the Tigers, Raymond spent six seasons in the NFL – three with the New York Giants and three with the Detroit Lions. In 90 games in the NFL,
Raymond started 60 times and intercepted 11 passes to go with 258 tackles.

Raymond, who earned his undergraduate degree from LSU in 1993, has four children – Cody, Ariel, Christopher and Madison.

His college coaching career includes stops at UCLA, Connecticut, Alabama and Ole Miss. He served as defensive coordinator at UCLA for two years and spent the final 10 games of the 2021 season as interim head coach at Connecticut.

During his three years on Lane Kiffin's staff at Ole Miss, the Rebels went a combined 34-7 and were ranked in the Top 10 in the final AP poll in both 2025 (No. 3) and 2023 (No. 9). In 2025, Ole Miss had the best season in program history, posting a 13-2 mark and reaching the semifinals of the College Football Playoffs. The Rebels, which went 10-3 in 2024, finished that year ranked No. 11 and Ole Miss went 11-2 in 2023 with a win over Penn State in the Peach Bowl to cap the season.

Prior to joining Ole Miss, Spanos spent three seasons (2019-21) at Connecticut where he served as defensive coordinator before being elevated to interim head coach for the final 10 games of the 2021 season.

In 2018, Spanos served as analyst on Nick Saban's staff at Alabama. The Crimson Tide won its first 14 games that year before falling to Clemson in the CFP National Championship Game.

From 2014-17, Spanos coached linebackers for the Tennessee Titans, helping the franchise to back-to-back 9-7 records in 2016 and 2017. In 2017, the Titans reached the divisional round of the NFL Playoffs after a win over the Chiefs in the Wild Card Round. In addition, the Titans linebackers combined to have the second-highest number of sacks in the NFL over the 2016-17 seasons.

Individually, outside linebacker Brian Orakpo earned a spot in the Pro Bowl following the 2016 season, while Derrick Morgan, also an outside linebacker, had one of the best years of his career with 56 quarterback pressures and a career-best 9.0 sacks to rank No. 9 in the AFC.

Prior to his time with the Titans, Spanos was the defensive coordinator on Jim Mora's staff at UCLA for two years (2012-13). In 2013, the Bruins allowed 23.2 points per game while UCLA totaled 79 sacks and 58 forced turnovers over Spanos' two seasons.

Myles Jack earned Freshman All-American honors as well as being named the Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year in 2013.

The Bruins finished the 2013 season ranked No. 17 and defeated Virginia Tech, 42-12, in the Sun Bowl on New Year's Eve.

In 2012, Spanos' Bruin defense ranked among the nation's best in sacks and was headlined by All-America linebacker Anthony Barr, who tallied 21.5 tackles for loss and 13.5 sacks along with defensive end Datone Jones (6.5 sacks, 19.0 tackles for loss). Jones went on to be selected in the first round of the 2013 NFL Draft. The team finished the season eighth in the nation in sacks, while Barr also ranked eighth in the country in sack average and second in total sacks.

The 2012 squad finished 9-5 overall and won the Pac-12 South Division. The Bruins dropped a 27-24 decision to No. 8 Stanford in the league championship game and competed in the Holiday Bowl.

In the 2010-11 seasons, Spanos served as the linebackers coach of the Washington Redskins. London Fletcher, who played in the 2011 Pro Bowl, led the NFL in tackles with 166 in 2011 and was added to the 2012 Pro Bowl.

After one year as a student assistant at Tulsa, Spanos got his start in coaching in 1994 as an intern with the Pittsburgh Steelers. After one season as an intern, he was elevated to defensive assistant, a position he held for 15 years with the franchise. His focus with the Pittsburgh defense was with the linebackers and secondary.

In 15 seasons with the Steelers, Spanos was part of three Super Bowl teams, which included wins over Seattle in Super Bowl XL and Arizona in Super Bowl XLIII. The Steelers, which one at least 10 games 10 times over the 15-year span, ranked among the top 10 in the NFL In defense 13 times, leading the league on four occasions.

Additionally, Harrison earned the Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year Award in 2008, while Bell was the Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year in 2001. Spanos originally joined the Steelers in 1994 as an intern in the scouting department before being promoted to a defensive assistant after one season.

A 1994 graduate of Tulsa, Spanos was a four-year letterman at center for the Golden Hurricane.

The 1989 and 1991 Golden Hurricane squads played in bowl games. In 1991, Tulsa beat San Diego State in the Freedom Bowl to finish 10-2 on the year and was ranked 21st on the final Associated Press poll. Eric Wolford, a former head coach at Youngstown who has nearly 25 years of offensive line coaching experience, joined the Tiger coaching staff in December. Wolford joined the LSU staff after two seasons at Kentucky as serves as the Tigers' offensive line coach.

Wolford comes to LSU after coaching offensive lines in the SEC for the past nine seasons, a stretch that includes stops at South Carolina (2017-20), Kentucky (2021, 2024-25), and Alabama (2022-23).

In addition to his offensive line coaching experience, Wolford spent five seasons (2010-14) as head coach at Youngstown State, leading the Penguins to a 31-26 mark and to a pair of Top 25 finishes in 2013 and 2014. As head coach at Youngstown State, his 2012 team beat Pitt, the first win over a Power 4 team in program history, along with a win over No. 1-ranked North Dakota State in 2011.

After going 3-8 in his first season, Wolford guided Youngstown State to a 28-18 mark over his final four campaigns with the Penguins breaking into the nation's Top 10 three times during that span.

Most recently, Wolford spent two seasons at Kentucky (2024-25) coaching the offensive line.

At Alabama in 2023, he guided an offensive line that blocked for the fourth-best scoring offense in the Southeastern Conference and No. 23 in the nation, recording 34.0 points per game.

That year, Alabama posted a 12-2 mark and claimed the SEC Championship with a win over Georgia, ending the Bulldogs' 29-game winning streak. Alabama's offensive line racked up 172.9 yards per game on the ground, ranking in the top half of the league and top 50 in the nation, with 32 touchdowns rushing. His offensive line also helped protect quarterback Jalen Milroe, who had a 65.8 percent completion percentage (187-284-6) for 2,834 yards and 23 touchdowns passing in 13 games.

Three of his offensive linemen earned post season honors as JC Latham was named to the All-SEC First Team by the AP and conference coaches and was a second-team All-American by several media outlets. Tyler Booker was named to the All-SEC First Team by the AP and was an All-SEC Second Team choice from the conference coaches. Kaydn Procter was named to the All-SEC Freshman Team and was a Freshman All-American by On3.com.

In Wolford's first season in Tuscaloosa in 2022, he led an offensive line that opened holes for an additional 45.5 rushing yards per game and surrendered 20 fewer sacks than the season prior. Senior guard Emil Ekiyor Jr. earned All-SEC First Team recognition, while both Javion Cohen and Tyler Steen garnered second-team accolades. Tyler Booker was named a Freshman All-America honoree from 247Sports, as well as SEC All-Freshman plaudits. The Crimson Tide went 11-2, tied for first in the SEC Western Division, and defeated Kansas State in the Sugar Bowl.

In his first season at Kentucky in 2021, he rebuilt an offensive front that lost three starters into a unit that was a finalist for the Joe Moore Award, given annually to the nation's top offensive line. The Wildcats averaged 5.23 yards per carry that season, while 53.1 percent of their rush attempts went for four yards or more to lead the nation. Two of his players from that season earned All-SEC honors, were drafted – Luke Fortner and Darian Kinnard. Kinnard also won the 2021 SEC Jacobs Blocking Trophy, just the second player in school history to win the award.

Before his first stint in Lexington, he had a second stint at South Carolina, spending four seasons as the offensive line coach in Columbia from 2017 to 2020.

At South Carolina in 2020, Wolford's unit helped pave the way for running back Kevin Harris to lead the conference in rushing and rewrite the Gamecocks' record book. Harris finished the regular season with 1,138 yards rushing, just the ninth player in school history to rush for 1,000-plus yards in a season. He had five 100-yard games, including two with 200-plus yards, joining George Rogers and Marcus Lattimore as the only players in school history with multiple 200-yard games.

In 2019, the offensive line helped five different running backs rush for more than 100 yards in a game.

In 2018, the Gamecocks went 7-6 and advanced to the Belk Bowl. The team averaged 30.1 points, 152.8 yards rushing, 272.8 yards passing and 425.6 total yards, the best marks since 2014. They had five games of 500 yards or more for the first time in school history, including back-to-back games of 600 yards against Chattanooga and Clemson. In his first season with the Gamecocks, South Carolina finished 9-4 and defeated Michigan in the Outback Bowl, 26-19.

South Carolina's number of sacks allowed dipped from 41 in 2016, the year prior to Wolford's arrival, to 29 in 2017 and to 23 in 2018, the fewest since 2013. Even more impressively, in SEC play the sacks allowed number dropped from 31 in 2016, to 18 in 2017, to just 12 in 2018.

Off the field, Wolford was named a top-25 recruiter by Rivals following the 2018 February signing date.

Wolford spent the previous two seasons (2015, 2016) in the NFL as the San Francisco 49ers assistant offensive line coach.

Prior to his time with the 49ers, Wolford logged 19 seasons as a coach at the collegiate level, including five (2010-14) as the head coach at Youngstown State University

Wolford also served as South Carolina's run game coordinator and offensive line coach in 2009 under head coach Steve Spurrier after a two-year term at Illinois where he held a similar post. Under Wolford's tutelage, the Illini, who played in the 2008 Rose Bowl game, led the Big Ten in rushing (2007) and passing (2008), while topping the 5,000-yard mark in total offense for just the third and fourth times in school history. Wolford was a Rivals Top-20 National Recruiter in 2008.

Wolford spent three seasons (2004-06) at Arizona as the offensive line coach, where he was on the same staff as Mark Stoops. UA led the league in fewest sacks allowed in 2004 and was second in 2005. He was also an integral part of back-to-back top-25 recruiting classes.

Wolford spent the 2003 season at North Texas, where his offensive line paved the way for tailback Patrick Cobbs, who earned the Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Year Award. Wolford also helped lead UNT to its third-consecutive bid to the New Orleans Bowl.

Before joining North Texas, Wolford enjoyed three-year stints at both Houston and South Florida. While at Houston, he coached a number of positions, spanning offense, defense and special teams. In 2002, Houston enjoyed a dramatic turnaround, going from a winless season to five victories. During that time, Wolford coached five all-conference players.

Wolford had the unique experience of coaching in the first three seasons of the USF football program, helping to lead the Bulls to two winning seasons. In year two, the offense put up over 400 yards per game.

Wolford began his coaching career at his alma mater, Kansas State, where he worked as a graduate assistant with the offensive line under John Latina. He then spent two years as the offensive line and strength coach at Emporia State.

Wolford was a four-year starter as an offensive guard at Kansas State under legendary coach Bill Snyder. He started 34 games during his career at Kansas State, including 21 straight at right guard and 13 at left guard. As a senior, the Wildcats appeared in a bowl game for only the second time in program history, beating Wyoming in the 1993 Copper Bowl for the school's first bowl victory. The Wildcats finished 1993 with a school-record nine wins and the school's first-ever AP Top 25 ranking.

After college, Wolford signed a free-agent contract with the Arizona Cardinals before returning to Manhattan to embark on his coaching career.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, attended Ursuline High School where he was enshrined into the school's athletics Hall of Fame in 2009. He received his bachelor's degree in social sciences with a focus on monetary policy and banking from Kansas State in 1994. He and his wife, Melinda, have two children, Stone and Marlee.

Eric and Melinda started a non-profit organization, inspired by their son, Stone, who was diagnosed with Cardiofaciocutaneous Syndrome (CFC Syndrome) as a baby. Their foundation is called the No Stone Unturned Foundation and is dedicated to embracing, engaging and empowering children with special needs and their families, with a major focus on any child with any disability. Football Victorious in Season Opener, Defeating No. 4 Clemson, 17-10

Quarterback Garrett Nussmeier passed for 230 yards and one touchdown, and the LSU defense limited Clemson to just 31 yards rushing, as the Bayou Bengals recorded a 17-10 win in Memorial Stadium. LSU improved to 1-0 on the season, while Clemson dropped to 0-1 in the first regular-season meeting between the schools. LSU defeated Clemson for the fourth time in the five all-time series matchups. Nussmeier completed 28 of his 38 passes, including an eight-yard TD strike to tight end Trey'Dez Green with 12:18 remaining in the fourth quarter that broke a 10-10 tie. The game-winning score capped an 11-play, 73-yard drive that began at the 3:09 mark of the third period. Aaron Anderson led all receivers with six catches for 99 yards, and running back Caden Durham posted 74 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries, averaging 4.4 yards per touch. Clemson led 10-3 at halftime, but Nussmeier directed LSU on an eight-play, 69-yard game-tying march, with the drive culminating in Durham's two-yard TD burst at the 8:59 mark of the third quarter. LSU linebacker Harold Perkins Jr. wreaked havoc in the Clemson backfield, finishing with five tackles, two quarterback hurries and one sack. Cornerback Mansoor Delane flashed in his LSU debut with an interception and two pass break-ups. The LSU defense held Clemson to 261 yards in total offense, including just 31 yards rushing, an average of 1.6 yards per attempt.

Secondary Tallies Five INTs; LSU Defeats Florida, 20-10

LSU picked off five passes from Florida quarterback DJ Lagway as the third-ranked Tigers posted a 20-10 win over the Gators in Tiger Stadium. LSU improved to 3-0 on the season, 1-0 in the SEC, while Florida dropped to 1-2 overall and 0-1 in league play. LSU improved its record to 17-1 in home night games during coach Brian Kelly's four-year tenure. LSU quarterback Garrett Nussmeier was 15-for-27 for 220 yards, including a 23-yard TD pass to wide receiver Zavion Thomas that gave the Tigers a 10-3 at the 7:33 mark of the second quarter. Florida tied the game, 10-10, later in the period, but a 45-yard field by Damian Ramos on the final play of the first half gave LSU a 13-10 advantage. Neither offense scored in the second half, but LSU safety Dashawn Spears intercepted a Lagway pass and returned it 58 yards for a touchdown with 8:08 remaining in the third quarter, extending the Tigers' lead to 20-10. The interception was the second of the night for Spears, who also recorded a pick in the first quarter. Safety Tamarcus Cooley, cornerback DJ Pickett and safety A.J. Haulcy also logged interceptions, as the Tigers picked off five passes in a game for the first time since December 19, 2020, when LSU defeated Ole Miss, 53-48, in Tiger Stadium.

Football Loses to No. 3 Texas A&M, 49-25

Quarterback Marcel Reed passed for 202 yards and two touchdowns, and he rushed for 108 yards and two more scores, leading No. 3 Texas A&M to a 49-25 win over No. 20 LSU in Tiger Stadium. Texas A&M improved to 8-0 on the season, 5-0 in the SEC, while LSU dropped to 5-3 overall and 2-3 in conference play. The victory marked the Aggies' first win in Baton Rouge since 1994, ending a six-game losing streak in Tiger Stadium. LSU led the contest, 18-14, at halftime, but Reed's five-yard TD rush early in the third quarter gave the Aggies a 21-18 advantage and began an avalanche of 35 unanswered points. Quarterback Garrett Nussmeier paced the Tigers' offense with 168 yards and one touchdown through the air, while true freshman running back Harlem Berry rushed for 59 yards, including a seven-yard TD that gave LSU a 15-14 lead late in the second quarter. LSU safety A.J. Haulcy continued to perform at an elite level, leading the Tigers with 12 tackles while intercepting a Reed aerial and contributing one pass break-up. The LSU special teams provided a safety early in the second period when Jhase Thomas blocked a Texas A&M punt through the back of the end zone.

Football Falls at No. 4 Alabama, 20-9

Quarterback Ty Simpson passed for 277 yards and one touchdown, and the Alabama defense limited LSU to three field goals, as the fourth-ranked Crimson Tide recorded a 20-9 win over LSU in Bryant-Denny Stadium. Alabama improved to 8-1 on the season, 6-0 in the SEC, while LSU dropped to 5-4 overall and 2-4 in conference play. The game was tied, 3-3, in the second quarter when Simpson directed a seven-play, 75-yard drive that culminated in a four-yard TD burst by running back Daniel Hill. Alabama increased its lead to 17-3 just before halftime when Simpson connected with wide receiver Ryan Williams for a 13-yard score 22 seconds prior to intermission. LSU's Damian Ramos booted second-half field goals covering 44 and 37 yards to make it a one-score game, but Conor Talty's 44-yard field goal and a forced fumble recovered by the Alabama defense in the final minutes of the fourth quarter sealed the victory for the Crimson Tide. LSU's defensive effort was paced by linebacker Harold Perkins Jr., who recorded nine tackles, including a strip-sack of Simpson that resulted in a Perkins Jr. fumble recovery.

Football Falls to Oklahoma in Regular Season Finale, 17-13

Quarterback John Mateer's 58-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Isaiah Sategna with 4:38 remaining in the game lifted eighth-ranked Oklahoma to a 17-13 win over LSU at Oklahoma Memorial Stadium. The Sooners improved their regular-season record to 10-2 overall, 6-2 in the SEC, while the Tigers dropped to 7-5 overall and 3-5 in conference play. Mateer's TD connection to Sategna capped a three-play, 84-yard drive that erased a 13-10 LSU lead. On their ensuing possession, the Tigers moved into Oklahoma territory, but the Sooners' defense forced a turnover on downs at its 29-yard line with 1:16 left in the contest. LSU quarterback Michael Van Buren Jr. fired a one-yard TD pass to wide receiver Zavion Thomas to give the Tigers a 10-3 lead at the 11:21 mark of the third period. Damian Ramos booted two field goals, including a 43-yarder that gave LSU a 13-10 advantage with 7:56 left in the game. LSU picked off three Mateer passes in the game, increasing the team total to an SEC-leading 17 interceptions on the season. Linebacker Harold Perkins Jr., safety A.J. Haulcy and cornerback DJ Pickett each recorded an interception, and the Tigers' defense limited Oklahoma to 75 rushing yards.

Football Falls to No. 21 Houston in Texas Bowl, 38-35

LSU posted 344 yards of offense and tight end Trey'Dez Green caught two touchdowns, but No. 21 Houston powered past the Tigers, 38-35, to capture the Kinder's Texas Bowl inside NRG Stadium. Barion Brown took the opening kickoff 99 yards to the house to give LSU the early 7-0 lead. It marked the first time LSU opened a game with a kickoff-return TD since Dec. 2, 1978, vs. Wyoming (Hokie Gajan, also 99 yards). Houston would respond to LSU's 14-0 start with a scoring drive of their own, cutting the LSU lead to 14-7 in the first quarter. Houston had the 21-14 advantage heading into the locker room. LSU was able to tie up the game on their first offensive possession of the second half as QB Michael Van Buren Jr. found Green on a 4-yard touchdown with 9:31 to play in the third quarter. The score was 28-28. Houston would take the lead back, 31-28, on a 25-yard field goal from Ethan Sanchez with 7:42 to play. The Cougars would extend their lead to 38-28 with 2:23 to play after Dean Connors rushed up the middle for a 20-yard score. The Tigers would make a late push with a 3-yard touchdown rush from Zavion Thomas to make it 38-35, but the onside kick from Aeron Burrell was recovered by Houston on the subsequent kickoff, ultimately ending the game and giving the Cougars the victory.

2019 JOE MOORE AWARD - THE MOST OUTSTANDING OFFENSIVE LINE UNIT IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL

LSU's offensive line, anchored by junior Lloyd Cushenberry and senior Damien Lewis and coached by James Cregg, was named the winner of the 2019 Joe Moore Award as the most outstanding offensive line unit in college football.

Aaron Taylor, co-founder of the award and CBS Sports analyst, along with SEC Network analyst Cole Cubelic presented the trophy to the Tigers prior to the CFP Semifinal game against Oklahoma.

LSU was the second team from the Southeastern Conference to win the award since its inception in 2015.

The Joe Moore Award trophy, crafted by award winning sports sculptor Jerry McKenna, is the largest trophy in college football, standing at a height of almost seven feet and weighing in at over 800 pounds.

LSU's O-line unit paved the way for the most productive offensive season in school history, establishing school records for points (726), points per game (48.4), total offense (8,526), passing yards (6,024), 50-point games (7), and games with at least 40 points (12).

LSU's offensive line featured eight different starters and only had two players that started all fifteen games at the same position all season.

LSU's starting line featured senior tackle Badara Traore (3 starts), junior tackle Saahdiq Charles (9 starts), freshman tackle Dare Rosenthal (3 starts), junior tackle Austin Deculus (13 starts), senior guard Adrian Magee (15 starts), sophomore guard Ed Ingram (2 starts), senior right guard Lewis (15 starts), and senior center Lloyd Cushenberry III (15 starts).

Burrow set nearly ever LSU and SEC single-season passing record as the Tigers led the nation in points per game (48.4) and yards per game (568.4) – both school records. LSU scored at least 40 points in 12 games and the Tigers went over the 50-point mark seven times and eclipsed 60 points three times.

The trio of Ja'Marr Chase, Justin Jefferson and Clyde Edwards-Helaire teamed up with Burrow to become the first team in SEC history with a 1,0000 yard rusher and two 1,000 yard receivers int he same season.

7 Grant Delpit

DB

2019 THORPE AWARD WINNER

Grant Delpit continued LSU's legacy as DBU by winning the 2019 Thorpe Award, becoming the first Tiger to win the award since Mo Claiborne in 2011.

Delpit was a consensus All-America in 2019 after starting at safety for the Tigers in 14 of 15 games. The DB became the first LSU player to be named first team Walter Camp All-America in consecutive seasons since running back Charles Alexander in 1777-78.

He was awarded the prestigious No. 7 after a consensus All-America season in 2018, Delpit followed that up by leading the Tigers to a 15-0 record and CFP Championship win over Clemson in his hometown.

After playing through an ankle injury throughout most of the year, Delpit finally got 100 percent late in the season and was a big reason for LSU defense playing its best football down the stretch.

He recorded 65 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss, two interceptions and two sacks in 14 games. He had six tackles and a sack for a 10-yard loss against Clemson. His forced fumble on Trevor Lawrence in the fourth quarter sealed the victory for the Tigers.

He was selected with the 44th overall pick in the 2020 NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

2004 RIMINGTON AWARD WINNER

Ben Wilkerson put together one of the best careers for a center in LSU history, leading the Tigers to a 33-8 mark in 41 starts at the position during his four years. During his career with the Tigers, Wilkerson helped lead LSU to a pair of SEC Championships as well as the 2003 BCS National Championship.

Wilkerson, a native of Hemphill, Texas, had his career cut short as a senior, suffering a knee injury during the eighth week of the season. Despite the injury, Wilkerson still went on to be named the co-recipient, along with David Baas of Michigan, of the Rimington Trophy in 2004, which goes annually to college football's top center. In addition, Wilkerson was named a First-Team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association and The Sporting News even though he missed LSU's final four games of the season.

Wilkerson graduated with a degree in general studies in May of 2005. He served as a graduate assistant on the LSU staff during the 2011 season.

25 Josh Reed

WR

2001 BILETNIKOFF AWARD WINNER

When one thinks of some of the finest players in the history of the Southeastern Conference, Josh Reed's name is included on that list. Reed, who is one of the most decorated players in school history, virtually re-wrote both the LSU and SEC receiving record books despite playing only 28 games at wide receiver.

Originally signed out of Rayne (La.) High School as a tailback, Reed moved to wide receiver in week 9 of the 1999 season out of a necessity. The results were immediate as he caught five passes for 100 yards against Houston in just his second game at the position.

A year later, in 2000, Reed earned first-team All-SEC honors after catching 65 passes for 1,127 yards and 10 touchdowns for the 8-4 Tigers. His 102.5 yards receiving a contest led the SEC, and he ranked second in the league with just under six catches a game.

Reed put together the finest year for a receiver in SEC history in 2001 as he shattered the league's single-season yardage mark with 1,740 yards on a school-record 94 catches. Reed set a pair of league marks in a 35-21 road victory over Alabama as he hauled in 19 passes for 293 yards and a touchdown. He capped his record-setting career in grand fashion, setting a pair of Sugar Bowl records with 14 receptions for 239 yards and two touchdowns in leading the Tigers to a 47-34 victory over Illinois.

At the conclusion of his junior season, Reed was named the winner of the Biletnikoff Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top collegiate receiver. Reed was drafted with the fourth pick of the second round of the 2002 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills.

20 Billy Cannon

HB

1959 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

Even by today's standards Billy Cannon was a rare athlete, combining sprinter speed with brute strength. Cannon could consistently run a 9.5 in the 100-yard dash and, at 6-1, 210 pounds, he had the size to overpower his opponents as well as outrun them. In 1957, he was an immediate standout as a sophomore, offensively and defensively.

As a junior, Cannon was the driving force behind the Fighting Tigers as they carved out a perfect season and captured the 1958 national championship. He passed for a touchdown and kicked the extra point in LSU's 7-0 win over Clemson in the Sugar Bowl and earned MVP honors.

Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss. Top-ranked LSU trailed the third-ranked Rebels 3-0 early in the fourth quarter, when Cannon fielded a punt at the LSU 11-yard-line and broke seven tackles on his way to paydirt. LSU won the contest 7-3. Considered one of the best collegiate backs of his era, Cannon was awarded the Heisman Trophy at the conclusion of the 1959 season. In 2008, the legendary Cannon was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

Billy Cannon was presented with the 1959 Heisman Trophy by then Vice President Richard Nixon.

Gaynell (Gus) Tinsley
End - 1935, 1936
Associated Press
The Tigers' first consensus All-American, Gaynell (Gus) Tinsley was a unanimous selection in both 1935 and 1936. He played both ways as an end and led LSU to two SEC titles and three Sugar Bowl appearances. After earning three letters with the Tigers from 1934-36, he went on to a successful NFL career where he was twice named an All-Pro selection while playing for the Chicago Cardinals. Tinsley later returned to LSU where he served as the Tigers' head coach from 1948-54. He was a charter member of the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame and inducted into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 1959.

Marvin (Moose) Stewart
Center - 1935, 1936
Helms Foundation
A three-year letterwinner for the Tigers (1934-36), Marvin (Moose) Stewart was selected to the Helms Foundation All-American team in 1935. Later named an All-SEC selection by the Associated Press in 1936, he helped the Tigers to back-to-back SEC titles in 1935 and 1936. Stewart was a charter member of the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Ken Kavanaugh, Sr.
End - 1939
Associated Press
A standout receiver for the Tigers from 1937-39, Ken Kavanaugh, Sr., was selected as an All-American by the Associated Press and finished seventh in the Heisman balloting during his senior season. A two-time AP first-team All-SEC selection (1938-39), Kavanaugh was known for scoring all four touchdowns in the Tigers' 28-7 victory over Holy Cross in 1939. He went on to an outstanding professional career with the New York Giants, where he continued with the organization as a scout after his playing career.
A superb athlete, Kavanaugh also enjoyed a brief stint in baseball's professional ranks after lettering on the diamond at LSU. His son, Ken. Jr., lettered at LSU from 1969-71 as a receiver on the football team. Ken Sr. was inducted into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 1970.

George Tarasovic
Center - 1951
National Editorial Alliance
George Tarasovic was a junior college transfer who, although playing and lettering only one year at LSU, was named both an All-America and All-SEC selection that season. An all-around athlete in high school, Tarasovic's college career was abbreviated because of military service during the Korean War. However, after returning from the service Tarasovic resumed his playing career at the professional level where he saw over a dozen years of action in the NFL and AFL.

Sid Fournet
Tackle - 1954
Associated Press, UPI, Look, Football Writers Association of America, National Editorial Alliance, Williamson, INS
An extremely durable performer, Sid Fournet played guard and tackle on both sides of the ball. Earning All-America distinction in 1954, Fournet was credited with seeing action in 83 percent of the Tigers' total plays that season. Also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection, he was honored by both AP and UPI in 1953 and 1954.

Jimmy Taylor
Fullback - 1957
Football Writers Association of America-Look
Viewed as one of the most complete football players to have ever played the game, Jimmy Taylor was named a All-American by the Football Writers Association of America-Look in 1957. Voted the MVP of the 1958 Senior Bowl, he went on to a legendary pro career with the Green Bay Packers (1958-66) and New Orleans Saints (1967) and was later inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1976. Taylor is also a member of the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame and the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Billy Cannon
Halfback - 1958, 1959
1959 Heisman Trophy, Associated Press (1958-59), UPI (1958-59), National Editorial Alliance (1958-59), Central Press (1958-59), American Football Coaches Association (1958-59), The Sporting News (1958-59), Football Writers Association of America-Look (1958-59), New York Daily News (1958-59), NBC (1958-59), Time (1958), Leahy (1958), Hearst (1959).
The greatest football player ever to don the Purple and Gold, Billy Cannon was awarded the Heisman Trophy in 1959. He was given virtually every honor that could be bestowed on an individual, including All-America accolades in 1958 and 1959. Cannon was considered almost as valuable on defense as he was on offense. His 89-yard punt return in 1959 against Ole Miss has become a gridiron legend, but few remember that he and Warren Rabb stuffed Ole Miss at the goal line of a fourth and inches to preserve the dramatic 7-3 victory. A three-year letterwinner for the Tigers (1957-59), he was also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection (1958-59). Cannon's No. 20 jersey was retired in 1960 and a statue was erected in front of Tiger Stadium in 2018.

Max Fugler
Center - 1958
Football Writers Association of America-Look, NBC
A bulwark for the White Team, Max Fugler was instrumental in the Tigers' 1958 national championship. Named an All-American by the Football Writers Association of America-Look and NBC, he was heralded as an outstanding blocker on offense and incomparable down lineman on defense. His defensive work was exemplified by the number of goal line and fourth down stands the Tigers had during 1958 and 1959. He was also named a first-team All-SEC selection by UPI in 1958. Fugler was inducted into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 2019

Associated Press, UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, New York Daily News, The Sporting News, Time
A 1961 All-America selection at guard, Roy (Moonie) Winston excelled on defense with a strong initial charge, plus speed and agility. Soft-spoken, Winston was elected by his teammates as the Tigers' team captain in 1961. Winston also earned first-team All-SEC honors from the AP and UPI that same year. In addition, he played on LSU's SEC champion baseball team in the early 1960's before enjoying a brilliant NFL career in Minnesota. He was inducted into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 1991.

Fred Miller
Tackle - 1962
Football Writers Association of America
A stellar lineman for the great LSU teams of the early 1960s, Fred Miller originally signed with Tulane after finishing at Homer High School, but he found out he was one English credit short, so he was bound for Texas A&M until Paul Dietzel sold his family on LSU. He played alongside Moonie Winston in 1961 and was a blocker for Heisman runner-up Jerry Stovall in 1962. In his three seasons, LSU played in two bowls, the Orange (25-7 over Colorado) and Cotton (13-0 over Texas). He was drafted by the Colts and later earned All-Pro honors. He was inducted into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 1990 and is a member of LSU's Modern Day Team of the Century.

Jerry Stovall
Halfback - 1962
Associated Press, UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, New York Daily News, The Sporting News, Time, CBS
Jerry Stovall was the last recruit signed by LSU after he graduated from high school. Once with the Tigers he earned All-America accolades and finished second in the 1962 Heisman Trophy balloting. Also a two-time All-SEC selection, Stovall went on to play nine seasons with the St. Louis Cardinals before becoming an assistant coach at South Carolina. He later returned to LSU as assistant coach and was named head coach after the tragic death of Bo Rein in 1980. He took LSU to the 1983 Orange Bowl and was named National Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Football Foundation in 1982. He was inducted into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 1981.

Billy Truax
End - 1963
Football News
Billy Truax was an excellent blocker, but LSU's offense in that era was geared towards the run and, consequently, his talents as a pass receiver were never exploited. Football News honored him as an All-American in 1963, the same year the UPI recognized him as a first-team all-conference honoree. Truax's son, Chris, was an offensive lineman at LSU from 1988-91.

Remi Prudhomme
Tackle - 1964
National Editorial Alliance, New York Daily News, Football News
A stalwart of the Chinese Bandits, Remi Prudhomme was an unusually strong player. His size and weight made him unique and his aggressive temperament was ideal for the role in which he was cast. Named a 1964 All-American by the National Editorial Alliance, the New York Daily News and the Football News, he also garnered all-conference honors from the UPI. Prudhomme went on to a brilliant pro career with the Buffalo Bills, Kansas City Chiefs and New Orleans Saints.

Doug Moreau
Split End - 1965
Football News
Doug Moreau's pass-catching ability was heralded, but his place kicking had to be recognized. In his junior season, his talented toe was responsible for the first two victories of the year, a 9-6 win over the Texas Aggies and 3-0 victory against Rice. The AP named him a first-team All-SEC pick in 1964 before he earned All-America honors from the Football News in 1965. Moreau went on to play professional ball with the Miami Dolphins, earned a law degree and served as a district judge in Baton Rouge. He worked as the color analyst on the LSU Sports Radio Network for 46 seasons, retiring after the 2023 campaign.

George Rice
Tackle - 1965
Time, The Sporting News
A local lad, George Rice's prowess in high school overlapped three sports: football, basketball and track. Extremely powerful, his specialty in track was the shot put. On the gridiron he was a devastating blocker and tackler who played in three bowl games during his career. Rice was named a first-team All-SEC selection by UPI in 1964 and an All-American by Time and The Sporting News a year later. He participated in the Hula Bowl and went on to a long, successful career in the NFL before returning to LSU as a graduate assistant.

John Garlington
End - 1967
Kodak/American Football Coaches Association
An incredible athlete whose talents typified his play and teamwork, John Garlington had excellent speed and lateral pursuit. Opponents were timid when it came to attacking his side of the defensive line. Even with his size, he was a speed merchant. In the 1966 Rice encounter, Garlington picked off an errant pass and returned it 42 yards for a touchdown. A 1967 Kodak/AFCA All-American, he was also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection (1966 and 1967).

George Bevan
Linebacker - 1969
Football Writers Association of America-Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association
Possibly the finest all-around linebacker ever to play at LSU, George Bevan's size had absolutely nothing to do with his desire, competitiveness, leadership and commitment. In the first game of his junior year, he injured his Achilles tendon to such an extent that he underwent several surgeries and spent 32 months on crutches. There was little hope he would ever play football again, but by the summer of 1969, his determination had earned him a starting role. Although Bevan had many notable moments, his blocked extra point against Auburn in the classic 21-20 victory by LSU had to be his crowning achievement. He was named both an All-America and All-SEC (AP and UPI) selection in 1969. Bevan earned his law degree from LSU.

Tommy Casanova
Cornerback - 1969, 1970, 1971
Associated Press (1969-70), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1969-70), UPI (1971), Central Press (1971), Football Writers Association of America (1971), Walter Camp (1971), Football News (1971), Time (1971)
Versatility personified might be the best description of the myriad talents of Tommy Casanova. During his three-year LSU career, he played offense and defense, returned punts and kickoffs, and did everything except handle the water cart. A fearless competitor, he led the team by example through three brilliant seasons and entered immortality as a result of his actions, both on and off the field. A three-time All-American, Casanova is one of just six three-time All-SEC performers in LSU history (1969-70-71). Following his collegiate career, Casanova played several seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals while pursuing his medical degree. He worked as an opthamologist in his hometown of Crowley, La. Casanova's No. 37 jersey was retired in the fall of 2009.

Mike Anderson
Associated Press, UPI, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America-Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Football News, Time
Mike Anderson started every game during his three years as a linebacker at LSU. In fact, he was the second of three straight All-America linebackers produced by the Tigers: George Bevan in 1969; Anderson in 1970; and Warren Capone in 1973. Anderson was noted for one great play -- at Auburn in 1970, LSU was leading 17-9, the Plainsmen had the ball, fourth and one inch and 6-2, 225-pound fullback Wallace Clark drove for the TD. Anderson met him head-on short of pay dirt and his feat became that of which legends are made. Named an All-American in 1970, he was also recognized as a first-team All-SEC pick by the AP and UPI that same year.

Ronnie Estay
Tackle - 1971
Kodak/American Football Coaches Association
One of the quickest defensive linemen ever to play at LSU, Ronnie Estay, a true Cajun, anchored a defense that allowed the fewest yards in the nation. During his junior year, he tackled both quarterbacks Pat Sullivan of Auburn and Archie Manning of Ole Miss for safeties. In 1971, he was recognized as a Kodak/AFCA All-American as well as a first-team All-SEC selection by the AP and UPI. Estay was inducted into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 2006.

Bert Jones
Quarterback - 1972
UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Time, The Sporting News
Bert Jones possessed as strong an arm as any quarterback in college history. He finished fourth in the balloting for the 1972 Heisman Trophy, won an SEC title as a sophomore and played in three bowl games while compiling a 26-6-1 career mark. He started only two games prior to the next-to-last game of his junior season, but started every one after that. Jones' most notable feats came against Notre Dame in 1971 (28-8), and Ole Miss in 1972 when, with time expired, he threw a touchdown pass to Brad Davis for the 17-16 LSU victory. A 1972 All-American and first-team All-SEC selection, he was the first pick in the 1973 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts. Jones was inducted into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 1986.

For his efforts, he was named an All-American in 1972 and 1973 as well as first-team All-SEC by the AP in 1972 and both the AP and UPI in 1973. Capone played for Birmingham in the World Football League and the Dallas Cowboys in the Super Bowl. He is the past president of the National "L" Club.

Tyler LaFauci
Guard - 1973
Associated Press, National Editorial Alliance, Walter Camp
During Tyler LaFauci's three-year career, LSU compiled a 27-8-1 mark and participated in three bowl games: Sun, Bluebonnet and Orange. His lack of height didn't inhibit his determination and competitiveness as he excelled both as a pass blocker and a pulling blocker. A 1973 All-American, he was also a first-team All-SEC pick as voted on by the AP and UPI that year. Also a brilliant student, LaFauci went on to postgraduate work and earned a physical therapist degree.

Mike Williams
Cornerback - 1974
Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, The Sporting News, Time
Feisty, aggressive, determined and unyielding; those were the adjectives that best described the play of Mike Williams. Named Sports Illustrated's Back-of-the-Week for his play against Kentucky in 1973, he was also named an All-American by Kodak/AFCA, The Sporting News and Time during the 1974 season.

Charles Alexander
Tailback - 1977, 1978
UPI (1977), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1977-78), Football Writers Association of America (1977-78), Walter Camp (1977-78), The Sporting News (1978), National Editorial Alliance (1978)

Robert Dugas
Offensive Tackle - 1978
Football News
Suffice it to say, Robert Dugas' academic prowess surpassed his athletic ability, which was considerable. He was a member of the self-named "Root Hogs" which cleared the way for many of Charles Alexander's record setting performances. Dugas was named to the Football News' All-America team in 1978, the CoSIDA Academic All-America Team in 1977 and to All-SEC teams both in 1977 and 1978.

James Britt
Cornerback - 1982
National Editorial Alliance
After three seasons, James Britt appeared ready to blossom. But in the second game of the 1981 season against Notre Dame, he intercepted a pass to set up a field goal, and a few minutes later, a broken arm ended his year. He went on to have an outstanding senior season in 1982 that was capped with All-America honors from the National Editorial Alliance. Britt was a second-round pick by the Atlanta Falcons and played there several years before entering a successful business career in the Georgia capital. Named an Academic All-American by CoSIDA in 1982, he was also a first-team All-SEC pick by the AP in 1982.

He earned All-America honors from UPI, Kodak/AFCA and Football News in 1984, in addition to first-team All-SEC honors from the AP and UPI. Later, a third round choice by Phoenix, Smith quickly earned a starting role with the Cardinals.

Michael Brooks
Linebacker - 1985
Associated Press, Scripps-Howard News Service
Michael Brooks stepped in from the very first game and showed his potential. His impressive play on the field earned him All-America honors as a junior and it was thought he would be a cinch to become one of the few two-time All-Americans in LSU history. But a knee injury in the Florida game sidelined Brooks for the remainder of the season. He was named first-team All-SEC in 1985 by the AP, UPI and SEC Coaches. The Denver Broncos drafted him in the third round. He was inducted into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 2009.

National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award

In the history of American sports, this was the first time an organization honored football players, not only for their athletic ability, but also for their academic and civic leadership. The Foundation's National Scholar-Athlete Awards program consists of graduate fellowships that are awarded on an annual basis to a select group of college football players in their senior year of eligibility who have demonstrated outstanding academic success, exemplary community leadership and superior football performance. LSU has had eight players named as a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete, including Rudy Niswanger, who claimed the 2005 William V. Campbell Trophy, which goes to college football's most outstanding student-athlete.

OVERALL RECORD: 9-2 · SEC RECORD: 5-0
COACH: BERNIE MOORE

The start of the season proved to be tough for LSU as Rice came to Baton Rouge and handed the Tigers a 10-7 defeat.

But led by the exploits of a freshman end named Gaynell Tinsley, the Tigers would not lose again in the regular season. It started with an 18-6 win over Texas in which the Tigers scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns for the victory, then continued all the way to New York City with a 32-0 rout of Manhattan, then to Shreveport for a win over Arkansas and on to Nashville with a 7-2 victory over Vanderbilt in the SEC opener.

Auburn would fall in a 6-0 tussle in Death Valley, but no opponent the rest of the way would be that close. The Tigers then disposed of Mississippi State and Georgia before crushing Southwestern Louisiana 56-0 and Tulane 41-0 to end the season 9-1 and send SEC champion LSU to its first bowl game ever, a Sugar Bowl date with Sammy Baugh's TCU Horned Frogs.

With heavy rains turning the Tulane Stadium field to slop, the expected passing matchup between Baugh and LSU's Abe Mickal never developed. Baugh threw an incomplete pass in the endzone for a safety that gave LSU a 2-0 lead, but the Frogs drove for a game-winning field goal and 3-2 triumph in front of an overflow crowd of 35,000.

LSU started off in fine fashion against a pair of SWC powers, defeating Rice, 20-7, at home then tying Texas at Austin, 6-6, before destroying Georgia in the SEC opener, 47-7, and shutting out Ole Miss, 13-0.

The Tigers beat border rival Arkansas in Shreveport, 19-7, blanked Vanderbilt in Music City and Mississippi State in Birmingham, then returned home to down Auburn 19-6 and Southwestern Louisiana 93-0.

LSU finished the regular season by whitewashing rival Tulane, 33-0, leaving the Tigers as the nation's highest scoring team with 281 points. The Tigers finished runner-up in the AP poll to Minnesota, but took national championship honors in the Williamson poll. The Tigers' season went sour again in the Sugar Bowl, though, as coach Buck Shaw's Santa Clara club shocked LSU, 21-14.

COACH: PAUL DIETZEL

In the modern era of college football, many coaches, especially in the hyper-competitive world of the SEC, would not survive seasons of 3-5-2, 3-7 and 5-5, but LSU athletic director Jim Corbett showed patience with the Tigers' young innovator, 35-year-old Paul Dietzel, and for his fourth season in Baton Rouge, Dietzel would come up with the innovation that would revolutionize college football, and football on the bayou would never be the same.

Dietzel unveiled his three units--the White Team, the Go Team and the Chinese Bandits--in impressive road victories over Rice and Alabama (in its first game under Bear Bryant), before LSU returned home to defeat Hardin-Simmons.

After crushing Miami and Kentucky, LSU moved to third in the polls for a homecoming showdown against Florida in front of the first sellout crowd in Tiger Stadium history. The 67,500 in attendance weren't disappointed, as the Tigers won 10-7 to move to No. 1 in the Associated Press poll, and LSU then backed up that ranking with a 14-0 shutout of sixth-ranked Ole Miss.

A 50-18 victory over Duke moved LSU up to the top spot in the UPI coaches' poll, but the Tigers nearly lost it all the next week against Mississippi State in Jackson, falling behind 6-0 at halftime before a touchdown in the third quarter and Tommy Davis' extra point gave LSU a 7-6 triumph, leaving only nemesis Tulane standing between the Tigers and the brass ring.

The Green Wave held sway in the first half, limiting the Tigers to two field goals and a 6-0 lead at intermission, but in the second half the Wave was swallowed up, as the Tigers scored an incredible 56 points, including 35 in the fourth quarter, to win 62-0 and leave no doubt as to who was No. 1.

LSU then took its victory lap in the Sugar Bowl against Clemson with a 7-0 victory and the perfect ending to the first perfect season at LSU in exactly 50 years.

Coming off a 5-4-1 campaign in 1960, LSU wanted to get its 1961 campaign off to a flying start, but a 16-3 loss to Rice in the season opener signaled the beginning of what could have been a very difficult season. As it turned out, the loss to the Owls meant little.

Over the final nine games of the season, LSU would allow a measly 30 points, with 14 of those scored by Kentucky in a 24-14 Tiger triumph in the fifth game of the year. The Tigers blanked Florida, 23-0, then took a 10-7 win over Ole Miss to leave them needing only a win over archrival Tulane to win a share of the league title.

For the second time in four years, Andy Pilney and his Green Wave suffered a 62-0 humiliation at the hands of the Bayou Bengals, and SEC champion LSU was on to the Orange Bowl to face Big Eight champion Colorado.

In what was Paul Dietzel's final game at LSU, the Tigers had little trouble in silencing the Buffaloes, 25-7.

OVERALL RECORD: 9-3 · SEC RECORD: 5-0
COACH: CHARLES MCCLENDON

Archie Manning and Ole Miss left LSU three points shy of a perfect season and the chance to play Texas in the Cotton Bowl for the national championship in 1969. After refusing a bowl berth following a 9-1 season, LSU was determined to remedy this failure in 1970.

The Tigers' hopes took a serious hit on opening night, as Texas A&M came to town and pulled off a 20-18 upset. The loss left the Tigers bloodied but unbowed, as LSU then rattled off seven consecutive victories, including a 17-9 victory at Auburn over future Heisman Trophy winner Pat Sullivan, then a 14-9 triumph in Birmingham over Alabama, the Tigers' second straight over Bear Bryant's Crimson Tide.

LSU would have two big non-conference games before its December 5 showdown with Archie Manning's Ole Miss Rebels for the SEC championship. First was a visit to South Bend and second-ranked Notre Dame, where LSU limited Ara Parseghian's powerful offense led by Joe Theismann to under 250 yards, but the Tigers missed several chances to win the game and fell, 3-0. The Tigers now needed two wins to lock up an Orange Bowl berth opposite Big Eight champion Nebraska, and got the first at Tulane Stadium over a pesky Green Wave squad, 26-14, setting up the title match with the Rebels.

Manning would return to Death Valley with a cast on his left arm that severely limited his throwing motion. The way LSU played that warm December night, Manning could have been Superman himself and it probably wouldn't have mattered. Tommy Casanova and Craig Burns combined to return three punts for touchdowns, and Ronnie Estay nailed Manning for a safety as LSU brought Christmas to Tiger Stadium early with a 61-17 rout of the Rebels to send the Tigers to Miami.

In the Orange Bowl against a Nebraska team looking to win a share of the national championship, LSU held a 12-10 lead after three quarters before wilting under the charge of the powerful Cornhuskers, 17-12.

COACH: BILL ARNSPARGER

The Tommy Hodson era began at LSU in 1986 in Bill Arnsparger's third and final season in Tigertown, which got off to a flying start with a 35-17 upset of Texas A&M.

The Tigers then dropped a shocking 21-12 decision to Arnsparger's alma mater, Miami of Ohio the following week.

The loss to Miami was only a temporary setback. The Tigers began to roll behind their new leader, defeating Florida 28-17 in Gainesville, then coming home for a 23-14 win over Georgia. The Tigers rolled to victories over Kentucky and North Carolina before Ole Miss came to Death Valley and won for the first time in Baton Rouge since Archie Manning's sophomore season of 1968, knocking the Tigers out of first place in the SEC.

Now came a trip to league leader Alabama in Birmingham. In a white-knuckle struggle, LSU prevailed 14-10, leaving the Tigers needing only to defeat Mississippi State the next week to win the Tigers' first league crown since 1970.

In front of a pro-LSU crowd in Jackson, the Tigers left little doubt as to who would be kings of the SEC, as they mauled the Bulldogs 47-0 to win at least a share of the league crown. LSU defeated Notre Dame and Tulane to close out the season, then Auburn upended Alabama in the Iron Bowl to give the Tigers the title all to themselves and secure the school's second Sugar Bowl berth in three years.

Arnsparger, who accepted the position of athletic director prior to LSU's game with Tulane, coached LSU for the final time on New Year's Day in a 30-15 loss to Nebraska in the Sugar Bowl.

COACH: MIKE ARCHER

LSU looked to win its second SEC title in three years in 1988, and after a 10-1-1 season in 1987 under first-year coach Mike Archer, the Tigers looked the part of champions in their first two games, thrashing Texas A&M 27-0 in Death Valley, then taking the school's first win ever in Knoxville with a 34-9 rout of Tennessee.

LSU would quickly find itself 2-2, though, as it squandered a 13-point lead in the final five minutes of a 36-33 loss at Ohio State, then dropped a 19-6 decision at Florida before heading into a critical showdown with fourth-ranked Auburn.

In a classic defensive battle, two Auburn field goals gave the Tigers of the Plains a 6-0 lead late in the fourth quarter before Tommy Hodson hit Eddie Fuller in the endzone with less than one minute to play, tying the game and causing such a tremor that it was felt on a seismograph in the LSU Geology Department. David Browndyke then kicked the extra point to give the Bayou Bengals a 7-6 triumph in what will forever be known as the "Earthquake Game."

Tough home victories over Kentucky and Ole Miss followed, then came a trip to Alabama where LSU fell behind 15-0 late in the first half before the Tigers rallied and took a 19-18 victory on Browndyke's field goal in the waning seconds. The Tigers won the SEC title the following week with a 20-3 win over Mississippi State.

LSU split its final two regular season games, losing to Miami and defeating Tulane, before a loss to Syracuse in the Hall of Fame Bowl ended the Tigers' season at 8-4.

OVERALL RECORD: 10-3 · SEC RECORD: 5-3
COACH: NICK SABAN

Following a strong 8-4 2000 season under first-year coach Nick Saban, the 2001 Fighting Tigers were widely expected to capture the SEC Western Division championship and play in the school's first SEC Championship Game.

The Tigers got off to a flying start with home victories over Tulane and Utah State before the terrorist attacks of September 11 postponed LSU's SEC opener against Auburn until December 1.

Instead, the Tigers opened SEC play at Tennessee's Neyland Stadium in front of more than 107,000, the largest crowd ever to see LSU play, where the Volunteers got revenge for 2000 with a 26-18 victory, before LSU returned home and fell to 0-2 in the SEC with a 44-15 loss to Florida.

LSU then defeated Kentucky and Mississippi State on the road, but those wins were erased by a 35-24 home loss to Ole Miss that seemingly finished the Tigers' title hopes off, dropping LSU to 2-3 in the SEC.

But instead of folding, the Tigers fought back. First, Rohan Davey threw for 528 yards and Josh Reed caught 19 passes for 293 yards as the Tigers bombed Alabama in Tuscaloosa, 35-21. Home wins over Middle Tennessee and Arkansas closed November and set up the Western division title showdown with Auburn.

The showdown was no contest. LSU rolled to a 21-7 halftime lead and cruised home to a 27-14 victory, sending the Tigers to their first SEC Championship game against a Tennessee squad that would look to punch its ticket to the Rose Bowl and a national championship date with Miami with a second victory over LSU.

Most teams would have wilted under the pressure, especially after losing their starting running back (LaBrandon Toefield) and quarterback (Davey), but LSU didn't just survive; it thrived. Led by the steady play of backup Matt Mauck, the Tigers stunned the college football world by upending the Big Orange, 31-20, sending LSU to its first Sugar Bowl since 1986.

The Tigers capped off this glorious season with a 47-34 pasting of Illinois in the Sugar Bowl, as Davey earned MVP honors by throwing for a bowl record 444 yards and three touchdowns, while Reed caught 14 passes for 239 yards in front of a partisan LSU crowd of more than 77,000, leaving LSU in the top 10 for the first time since 1987.

LSU stormed to its second Southeastern Conference title under Nick Saban in three years as the Tigers blew through the conference slate with a 7-1 record, which included five league wins of 21 points or better.

Behind a suffocating defense and a balanced offensive attack, the Tigers earned a spot in the league's championship game for the second time under Saban with a 55-24 win over Arkansas in the regular-season finale in Baton Rouge.

LSU then followed that with a 34-13 trouncing of Georgia in the SEC title game, a contest that saw the Tigers pile up 293 yards rushing against the fifth-ranked Bulldogs with freshman Justin Vincent accounting for an SEC Championship Game record 201 of those yards.

The victory over Georgia propelled the Tigers in the BCS National Championship contest against Oklahoma, a game that LSU won by a 21-14 count to claim the school's second national title in football.

COACH: LES MILES

LSU fans across the world had to wait 45 years between the Tigers' first and second National Championships. They only had to wait four between the second and third, but the victory tasted just as sweet.

With a crushing 38-24 win over Ohio State in the Bowl Championship Series Championship Game, LSU left little doubt in the minds of those in the college football universe who the best team was during the 2007 season.

The Tigers (12-2) became the first two-time winner of the BCS Championship by dominating most of the game and outscoring the Buckeyes 31-0 over a 24-minute stretch.

Head coach Les Miles, in his third season at LSU, lifted the $30,000 Waterford Crystal football-shaped trophy amid a cloud of purple and gold ticker tape.

As dominant as LSU's national championship game performance was, it matched how the Tigers opened the 2007 season.

LSU, ranked No. 2 in the preseason, lived up to the lofty ranking with a 45-0 whitewashing of Mississippi State in Starkville in the season opener, followed by a 48-7 pounding of No. 9 Virginia Tech in Tiger Stadium the following week.

The Tigers throttled Middle Tennessee (44-0), No. 12 South Carolina (28-16) and Tulane (34-9) in consecutive weeks, lifting the Bayou Bengals to No. 1 in the Associated Press rankings heading into a Top-10 matchup with defending national champion Florida.

In what has become one of the most memorable games in Tiger Stadium History, top-ranked LSU dueled all night by the Tim Tebow-led ninth-ranked Gators. Trailing 24-14 entering the fourth quarter, LSU outscored Florida 14-0 in the final frame to take a dramatic 28-24 victory. In fact, the Tigers converted 5-of-5 fourth down attempts, including two on a nine-minute drive late in the game that resulted in Jacob Hester's two-yard touchdown plunge. The Tigers batted down a last-second Hail Mary pass from Tebow that dropped harmlessly to the Tiger Stadium turf to seal the epic victory.

Still feeling the effects of the physical clash with the Gators, LSU stumbled the following week, falling 43-37 in three overtimes at No. 17 Kentucky.

Despite the heartbreaking defeat at the hands of the Wildcats, there was no rest for the weary as the Tigers returned to Baton Rouge to square off against No. 18 Auburn in a game that would come down to the final second.

After a slow start against the Tigers from the Plains, LSU roared back with 17 points in the fourth quarter, but it was the ending that stunned the nation. With the Tigers marching down to the Auburn 22-yard line and time running out, head coach Les Miles elected not to call timeout or kick a potential game-winning field goal. Instead, quarterback Matt Flynn lobbed a perfectly-thrown pass to a well-guarded Demetrius Byrd who slid in the endzone to make the touchdown grab with exactly one second on the clock. Tiger Stadium erupted as LSU claimed a 30-24 victory over Auburn.

The Tigers posted another dramatic victory with a 41-34 triumph over Alabama in Tuscaloosa before rattling off a 58-10 win over Louisiana Tech and a 41-24 triumph at Ole Miss.

The top-ranked Tigers had sewn up the SEC Western Division title heading into the regular-season finale against Arkansas, but the upset-minded Razorbacks came into Tiger Stadium and escaped with a 50-48 victory in three overtimes, seemingly sinking the Tigers' hopes of playing for a national championship.

Under the leadership of Miles, LSU rallied the following week in the SEC Championship Game against No. 14 Tennessee. Even with starting QB Matt Flynn unavailable for the game with an injury, LSU turned to backup Ryan Perrilloux who earned game MVP honors by throwing for 243 yards and one touchdown while also adding a two-point conversion late in the game to seal the Tigers' 21-14 victory and give LSU its 10th SEC Championship in school history.

When the BCS pairings were announced, LSU had a date with destiny against Ohio State in the BCS National Championship Game in New Orleans, and the Tigers would return home with a third national championship in school history.

OVERALL RECORD: 13-1 · SEC RECORD: 8-0
COACH: LES MILES

For the first time since 1958, LSU football completed a perfect regular season with a 12-0 mark before going on to claim its 11th SEC Championship with a 42-10 dominating win over No. 12 Georgia in the SEC title game in Atlanta.

It was a season of records for the 2011 team, posting a 13-0 mark for the first time in school history and spending 11 straight weeks as the nation's No. 1 team, the longest stretch in school history. The Tigers won 12 of their 13 games by double-digits, representing the most in LSU single-season history.

Led by Heisman Trophy finalist and Bednarik Award winner Tyrann Mathieu, LSU held opponents without a touchdown in 44 quarters. The Tigers set an NCAA record with eight victories over Top 25 teams during the season, with five of those wins coming away from Tiger Stadium.

LSU opened the year in the nation's most anticipated non-conference matchup of the season, rolling over No. 3 Oregon, 40-27, in front of 87,711 fans in the new, state-of-the-art Cowboys Stadium on Sept. 3. Mathieu's Heisman campaign began with a roaring start as he forced a fumble and recovered it for a touchdown in the second quarter, which gave LSU a 10-6 advantage. The Tigers scored 24 unanswered points against the Ducks and opened the season with a win over a top-five ranked non-conference squad for the first time in school history.

LSU made its Tiger Stadium season debut on Sept. 10 with another brilliant defensive outing, holding Northwestern State to six first downs and 95 total yards in a 49-3 win. A week later, facing a short week, the Tigers posted a 19-6 win over No. 25 Mississippi State in a rare Thursday night tilt in Starkville on Sept. 15. It marked the second straight week LSU did not allow a touchdown.

The eyes of the nation were once again focused on the Tigers on Sept. 24 in Morgantown, W.V. With ESPN "College GameDay" on hand for the second time this season, LSU throttled No. 16 West Virginia, 47-21, in a primetime game. LSU's farthest trip to the Northeast since 1947 saw All-American Morris Claiborne race 99 yards on a kickoff return for a touchdown in the third quarter that sealed the victory.

Following a 35-7 win over Kentucky on Oct. 1, the Tigers posted their largest margin of victory over Florida since 1971 with a 41-11 thumping of the No. 17 Gators on Oct. 8 in Tiger Stadium. LSU's defense did the job again a week later at Tennessee on Oct. 15, pitching a second-half shutout in a 38-7 win in Knoxville.

Quarterback Jarrett Lee threw for a pair of touchdowns in a 45-10 romp of No. 19 Auburn on Oct. 22 in Tiger Stadium, setting the stage for the "Game of the Century" two weeks later. Four quarters were not enough to decide a winner as the nation's top-two ranked teams battled on Nov. 5 in Tuscaloosa, Ala. Safety Eric Reid saved a score with an acrobatic interception and Drew Alleman's 25-yard field goal in overtime lifted No. 1 LSU past No. 2 Alabama, 9-6. The six points were the fewest total for the Tide in the Nick Saban era.

On Nov. 25, the Tigers put a punctuation on an unblemished regular season with a 41-17 win over No. 3 Arkansas in Tiger Stadium. After trailing 14-0, Mathieu sparked LSU with a spectacular 92-yard punt return touchdown in the second quarter. The Tigers posted 17 unanswered points in the fourth quarter highlighted by a 48-yard touchdown run from quarterback Jordan Jefferson.

For the second straight week, LSU had to recover from a double-digit deficit, but did so when it counted most to claim its fourth SEC Championship game victory. The Tigers trailed 10-0 to No. 12 Georgia and went the entire first half without a first down. In the second half, LSU pummeled the Bulldogs with 35 unanswered points to win 42-10 in the Georgia Dome.

Once again, it was Mathieu who provided the momentum. Mathieu scampered 62 yards for a punt return touchdown in the second quarter, while his electrifying 47-yard return weaving through defenders in the second half set up another score. Kenny Hilliard recorded three touchdowns and Alfred Blue raced 48 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter as the coronation was complete. For the second time in the Les Miles era, the LSU Tigers were the undisputed SEC champions.

LSU went on to face Alabama in the 2012 BCS National Championship Game at the Superdome in New Orleans.

The 2019 LSU football team cemented itself as "The Best Ever" with a 15-0 record, wins over seven Top-25 teams and a sweep of the major awards.

Top-ranked LSU claimed its fourth national title and completed the most dominant season in college football history with a 42-25 win over No. 2 Clemson in the CFP National Championship Game in New Orleans.

Led by quarterback Joe Burrow's four touchdown passes, top-ranked LSU won the 2019 SEC Championship, 37-10, over No. 4 Georgia at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta. Burrow finished 28-for-38 for 349 yards. Burrow set the SEC record for touchdown passes in a season. In Ed Orgeron's third full season in Baton Rouge, LSU improved to 13-0 and solidified its No. 1 ranking in the College Football Playoffs.

In their march to the SEC title, the Tigers beat five Top 10 teams and brought the league's trophy back to Baton Rouge for the first time since 2011. Burrow was named the SEC Championship Game's Most Valuable Player after completing 28-of-38 passes for 349 yards and four touchdowns. Defensively, the Tigers kept Georgia's offense off the field by allowing only 3-of-13 third down conversions, while holding the Bulldogs to their lowest rushing total (61 yards) since 2017.

The 2019 season began with a 55-3 win over Georgia Southern, as Burrow tied a school record with five touchdown passes – all in the first half – as sixth-ranked LSU scored on its first five possessions to batter the Eagles. Fourteen different Tigers caught passes in the contest, and Georgia Southern converted only one of 12 third downs against a fast and furious LSU defense.

In Week 2, the No. 6 Tigers earned their first non-conference road victory over a top-10 team, trailing the No. 9 Longhorns only in the first quarter. On a hot and humid evening the teams combined for 56 points in the last 30 minutes of LSU's 45-38 victory. Burrow threw for 471 yards and four touchdowns; for the first time, three LSU receivers recorded 100 yards or more in one game.

LSU returned home the next Saturday for a 65-14 win over Northwestern State, as the Tigers passed for 300-plus yards for the fourth-straight game, scored 48 unanswered points, and allowed no second-half scores. In vanquishing the Demons, No. 4 LSU became the 12th program in NCAA Division I to win 800 games.

The No. 4 Tigers torched Vanderbilt in Nashville, 66-38, scoring LSU's most points in regulation against a conference opponent in school history. Burrow threw a school-record six touchdowns and set LSU records for passing yards in a first half (357) and for consecutive 350-yard passing games, with three.

After a bye week, LSU rolled to a 42-6 triumph over Utah State in a Tiger Stadium day game. The Tigers defended their No. 5 ranking by dominating the Aggies, allowing only one of 12 third downs to be converted, recording 10 tackles for loss and snagging three interceptions.

Florida came to Death Valley in Week 6, and for the first time in 2019, No. 5 LSU trailed in the second half, 28-21, when Florida scored with just under 11 minutes remaining in the third quarter. But it was all Tigers the rest of the way, as the defense shut out the No. 7 Gators for the final 25 minutes in a 42-28 win. The offense ran only 48 plays, but with surgical precision, for an astounding 10.6 yards per play – LSU's most ever versus an SEC opponent.

The Tigers then traveled to Starkville, Miss., and rolled to a 36-13 victory over Mississippi State. In just the seventh game of the year, Burrow broke two LSU single-season records to vault the No. 2 Tigers over the Bulldogs. Burrow set the school mark for single-season touchdown passes (28) and single-season TD responsibilile for (28 throwing, 2 rushing). Meanwhile, the defense forced three turnovers from the overmatched Bulldogs.

On a Tiger Stadium turf slick from heavy rain a day earlier, No. 2 LSU compiled more than 500 yards of total offense and overcame a pair of turnovers to defeat No. 9 Auburn, 23-20. Burrow posted career highs in both completions and attempts, going 32-for-42, and the defense held the other Tigers to just 287 yards. LSU earned its third top 10 victory of the season.

After their second open date, the now top-ranked Tigers journeyed to Tuscaloosa, Ala., and posted an epic 46-41 win over No. 2 Alabama. Burrow had 393 yards passing with three touchdowns and running back Clyde Edwards-Helaire scored four times to help LSU snap the Tide's 31-game home winning streak. LSU, which never trailed, built a 33-13 halftime lead and then held off the Crimson Tide with unrelenting offensive efficiency. The Tigers improved to 9-0 overall for the fifth time in school history, tying a school record with four top-10 victories in one season.

Burrow tossed five touchdowns to set LSU's single-season passing record, in the top-ranked Tigers' 58-37 victory over Ole Miss in Oxford. In just game 10 and behind a career-best 489 yards, Burrow broke Rohan Davey's 2001 school yardage record (3,347). The 714 yards of offense LSU accumulated against the Rebels was its second-most in program history and the most ever against an SEC opponent.

Back in Death Valley, the No. 1 Tigers scored 49 unanswered points, overwhelming Arkansas, 56-20, to secure a berth in the SEC Championship Game. Edwards-Helaire gained 188 yards on just six carries, becoming the 14th Tiger to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. LSU moved to 11-0 for the third time in school history.

In the 2019 regular-season finale, Burrow took his final bow on Senior Night in Tiger Stadium, as No. 1 LSU overwhelmed Texas A&M, 50-7. Burrow set SEC records for passing yards with 4,366 and for passing touchdowns with 44. In preserving their undefeated regular season, the No. 2 Tigers defense held the Aggies to 169 total yards and just 2-of-13 on third down while recording a safety and six sacks.

CANNON'S HALLOWEEN RUN

LSU 7, OLE MISS 3

TIGER STADIUM · OCT. 31, 1959

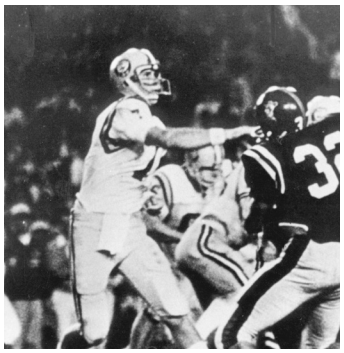
Billy Cannon's 89-yard punt return for a touchdown against third-ranked Ole Miss is not only one of the most memorable plays in LSU football history, but it also ranks among the most memorable in college football. Trailing 3-0 late in the game, Cannon, the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner, fielded the punt at the Tiger 11-yard line and began his run into immortality. He eluded seven would-be tacklers down the east sideline and crossed the goal line of Tiger Stadium for the only touchdown of the game, giving the top-ranked Tigers victory.

1966 COTTON BOWL

LSU 14, ARKANSAS 7

COTTON BOWL · JAN. 1, 1966

LSU entered the 1966 Cotton Bowl as a heavy underdog to the second-ranked Arkansas Razorbacks, but the Tigers knew they had nothing to lose and a lot of respect to gain. Arkansas, which entered the game riding a 22-game win streak and knew a victory over LSU meant a possible national title, struck first, but LSU's Joe Labruzzo reached the endzone twice in the second quarter to give the Tigers a 14-7 lead that would stand and foil the Razorbacks' hopes of a title.



JONES TO DAVIS

LSU 17, OLE MISS 16

TIGER STADIUM · NOV. 4, 1972

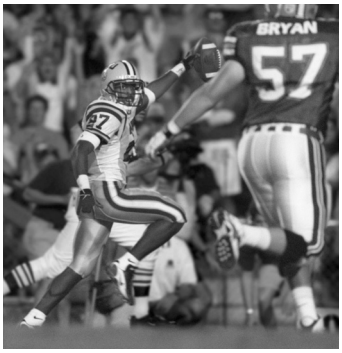
"You are now entering Louisiana. Set your clocks back four seconds," read a sign put up on the Louisiana-Mississippi state line after this game. With undefeated and No. 6 LSU on the ropes, and four seconds remaining in the contest, Bert Jones' pass to Jimmy LeDoux fell incomplete in the endzone sending the Ole Miss sidelines into a celebration. But somehow, the game clock still showed :01 remaining. Following an Ole Miss timeout, Jones hit Brad Davis, who bobbled the football, and then dove into the endzone tying the game at 16-16. Rusty Jackson's extra-point provided the winning margin in what was one of the most improbable wins in school history.

THE EARTHQUAKE GAME

LSU 7, AUBURN 6

TIGER STADIUM · OCT. 8, 1988

With time winding down and LSU saddled with fourth-and-10 at the Auburn 11-yard line, quarterback Tommy Hodson found running back Eddie Fuller in the back of the endzone for the game-winning touchdown as LSU stunned fourth-ranked Auburn in Tiger Stadium. In what is now known as the "Earthquake Game", Hodson's touchdown pass to Fuller with 1:41 left in the contest caused such a thunderous explosion from the 79,341 fans in Tiger Stadium, the LSU Department of Geology registered vibrations on a seismograph machine at the exact moment the TD was scored.



NO. 1 FALLS!

LSU 28, FLORIDA 21

TIGER STADIUM · OCT. 11, 1997

Oct. 11, 1997, marked the first time LSU defeated the No. 1 ranked team in the nation when the Tigers upended top-ranked Florida in Tiger Stadium. LSU jumped out to an early lead, but the Gators would score a touchdown with 6:44 remaining in the fourth quarter to cut the lead to single digits. LSU's defense sealed the victory when Raion Hill intercepted a Florida pass with less than three minutes to play, and the Tigers ran out the clock to set off one of the greatest celebrations in Tiger Stadium history.

SEC CHAMPIONS!

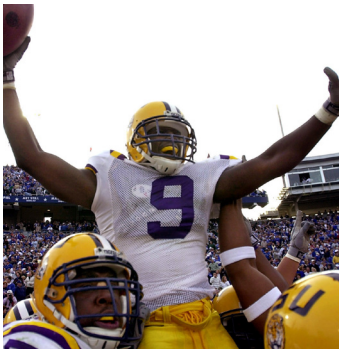
GEORGIA DOME · DEC. 8, 2001

LSU, playing in its first SEC Championship Game, shocked No. 2 Tennessee to win its first SEC title since 1986. Tiger starting QB Rohan Davey went down to injury and was spelled by redshirt freshman Matt Mauck, who scored two rushing touchdowns to claim MVP honors. The game was dedicated to the memory of former coach Charles McClendon, who passed away a day earlier while the Tigers were en route to Atlanta. The win secured LSU's first Sugar Bowl appearance since 1987.



BLUEGRASS MIRACLE

LSU 33, KENTUCKY 30

COMMONWEALTH STADIUM · NOV. 9, 2002

Trailing 30-27 to Kentucky with 11 seconds to play in the game, LSU mounted a two-play 87-yard drive that will forever be known as, "The Bluegrass Miracle." QB Marcus Randall connected with WR Devery Henderson on the game-winning 75-yard pass as time expired to give the Tigers the most unimaginable game-winning play.

LET THE VALLEY SHAKE!

LSU 17, GEORGIA 10

TIGER STADIUM · SEPT. 20, 2003

QB Matt Mauck rolled to his left, fired to the endzone and found wide receiver Skyler Green for an over-the-shoulder 34-yard touchdown with 3:03 remaining as No. 11 LSU outlasted No. 7 Georgia in an early SEC thriller at a raucous Tiger Stadium. All-American Corey Webster sealed the victory with an interception in the final minute. With ESPN College GameDay on hand for the first time since 1997, the win catapulted the Tigers onto the national scene where they would eventually go on to claim their first national title since 1958.

2003 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

LSU 21, OKLAHOMA 14

LOUISIANA SUPERDOME · JAN. 4, 2004

LSU, the No. 2 team in the Bowl Championship Series rankings, beat No. 1 BCS ranked Oklahoma in the Nokia Sugar Bowl to win the 2003 National Championship, the Tigers' first title since 1958. Freshman RB Justin Vincent, named the game's MVP after totaling 117 yards, scampered 64 yards on the first play of the game to set the tone as LSU never trailed en route to its first title in the BCS era. The LSU defense, ranked No. 1 in the nation, stifled the Sooners' top-ranked offense, holding Oklahoma to 154 yards and sacking Heisman winning QB Jason White five times.

PRIMETIME DRAMA

TIGER STADIUM · OCT. 6, 2007

In one of the most exciting games ever played in LSU's storied Tiger Stadium, No. 1-ranked LSU overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to beat defending national champion and ninth-ranked Florida in front of 92,910 emotionally spent fans. TB Jacob Hester plunged into the endzone from 1-yard out that gave LSU its first lead of the game and sent Tiger Stadium into pandemonium with 1:06 to go in the fourth quarter. It marked LSU's first regular-season primetime game on network television since 1981."

2007 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

LSU 38, OHIO STATE 24

LOUISIANA SUPERDOME · JAN. 7, 2008

LSU became the first school in the nation to win multiple BCS national titles as the second-ranked Tigers downed top-ranked Ohio State, in the 2008 BCS National Championship Game. LSU trailed 10-0 in the first quarter but rallied for 31 unanswered points on a school-record tying four TD passes from QB Matt Flynn to claim the third national title in program history. DT Ricky Jean-Francois garnered defensive Most Outstanding Player honors chiefly for blocking a second-quarter, 38-yard field goal attempt that kept the game tied at 10-10 and swung the momentum completely in LSU's favor the remainder of the game.

GAME OF THE CENTURY

LSU 9, ALABAMA 6 (OT)

BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM · NOV. 5, 2011

Billed as the "Game of the Century" after weeks of media hype, Drew Alleman's 25-yard field goal in overtime propelled No. 1 LSU past No. 2 Alabama in Bryant-Denny Stadium. With rosters featuring future NFL players, neither team was able to score a touchdown. With the Tide driving in the fourth quarter, S Eric Reid made arguably the biggest play of the entire college football regular season, when he grabbed an acrobatic, diving interception at the 1-yard line that prevented an Alabama score.

3RD-AND-17

LSU 45, TEXAS 38

DARRELL K. ROYAL-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM · SEPT. 7, 2019

Clinging to a 37-31 lead at No. 9 Texas, LSU faced a 3rd-and-17 at its own 39-yard line with 2:27 left in the game. Quarterback Joe Burrow eluded a fierce Longhorns rush, stepped up in the pocket, and connected with wide receiver Justin Jefferson on a 61-yard touchdown reception that proved to be game-winning score. The victory was No. 6 LSU's first non-conference road win over a Top-10 team. Burrow threw for 471 yards and four touchdowns; for the first time in school history, three LSU receivers recorded 100 yards or more in one game.

ROLL CLYDE

LSU 46, ALABAMA 31

The top-ranked Tigers journeyed to Tuscaloosa, Ala., and posted an epic win over No. 2 Alabama to snap the Tide's 31-game home winning streak. Running back Clyde Edwards-Helaire had 180 yards of total offense, with three rushing touchdowns and 103 yards, along with nine catches for 77 and a score. Quarterback Joe Burrow threw for 393 with three touchdowns, and the Tigers rolled up 559 yards of total offense. 2019 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS – THE BEST EVER

LSU 45, CLEMSON 25

MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME · JAN. 13, 2020

Led by Heisman Trophy-winning QB Joe Burrow's six-touchdown performance, top-ranked LSU earned the title 2019 National Champions and arguably The Best Team Ever. LSU (15-0) proved its dominant season by ending Clemson's 29-game winning streak in a victory over the defending champs. The Tigers recorded their seventh win of the season over a Top 10 team. Burrow was 31-of-49 passing for 463 yards with five touchdown passes, while adding another 58 rushing yards and one TD. He set NCAA single-season marks for passing touchdowns (60) and total touchdowns (65).

LSU 32, ALABAMA 31 (OT)

TIGER STADIUM · NOV. 4, 2022

No. 10 LSU saw its opportunity against No. 6 Alabama down one point in overtime and did not pass it up, as QB Jayden Daniels connected with freshman TE Mason Taylor for the two-point conversion at the pylon of the southwest end zone of Tiger Stadium to take down the Crimson Tide. Thousands of fans descended onto the field to celebrate the first victory over Alabama at home since 2010 and LSU's position at the top of the SEC West in the first year under head coach Brian Kelly. An instant classic between the two top-10 teams went to overtime after two touchdowns in the final 1:47 of regulation.

The rich history of LSU football is impossible to portray in only a few pages. However, below are tidbits from the Tiger Football annals that have contributed to the story that is 131 seasons of LSU Football. These items are presented as background material with the hope that they will encourage a better understanding of the many traditions that are associated with Tiger football and LSU Athletics.

ALMA MATER

Since 2005, LSU has followed a win by singing the alma mater on the field. The team gathers in front of the student section and joins the student body in a rendition of the alma mater.

Where stately oaks and broad magnolias shade inspiring halls,
There stands our dear Old Alma Mater who to us recalls
Fond memories that waken in our hearts a tender glow,
And make us happy for the love that we have learned to know.
All hail to thee our Alma Mater,
molder of mankind,
May greater glory, love unending be forever thine.
Our worth in life will be thy worth we pray to keep it true,
And may thy spirit live in us, forever L-S-U.

JOE "BURREAUX"

Quarterback Joe Burrow cemented his place in LSU lore by winning the Heisman Trophy and leading a Tigers squad many considered "The Best Ever" in college football to the 2019 national championship. "Burreaux," an homage to LSU worn by the graduate transfer during his Senior Tribute in Tiger Stadium, set countless single-season records including NCAA marks for touchdowns and SEC records for completions, attempts, passing yards, passing TDs, total TDs, completion percentage, total yards, total yards per game and total plays. Burrow, who earned his master's degree in 2019, was 25-3 in two seasons at LSU, including 11 victories over top-10 ranked opponents. In his final game as a Tiger, Burrow threw for 463 yards and accounted for all six of LSU's TD's in the 42-25 CFP National Championship game victory over Clemson. Three months later, the Cincinnati Bengals made Burrow the No. 1 overall selection in the 2020 NFL Draft.

BILLY CANNON, NO. 20

The great Billy Cannon, two-time All-American and Heisman Trophy winner, played at LSU from 1957-59. He led the Tigers to the 1958 National Championship and is best known for his 89-yard punt return to beat Ole Miss in 1959. In his career, Cannon rushed for 1,867 yards on 359 carries, an average of 5.2 yards per carry and scored 19 rushing touchdowns. He also scored two touchdowns by receiving and one each by punt return, kickoff return and interception return. LSU went 24-7 during Cannon's stay on the Baton Rouge campus, including 19-straight victories from the end of the 1957 season to the eighth game of the 1959 campaign. Following that 1959 season, Cannon's jersey was retired into the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame. A sign honoring Cannon was unveiled in the southeast corner of Tiger Stadium during LSU's game against Ole Miss on Nov. 22, 2008. Cannon was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in the summer of 2009. Cannon passed away on May 20, 2018, at the age of 80.

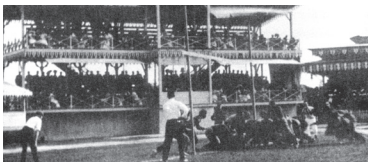
BILLY CANNON STATUE

Billy Cannon became the third LSU Tiger to have a statute unveiled on campus. The statue, located on the Champions Plaza on the southwest corner of Tiger Stadium, commemorates the accomplishments of the most heralded football player in LSU Football history. Cannon led LSU to the 1958 national championship and the following year won the 1959 Heisman Trophy as the top player in college football. His No. 20 jersey was retired by the University in 1959 and he was inducted into the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1975.

CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleaders have long been a part of college football tradition, and the LSU Varsity Cheerleaders are no exception in their role in Tiger gridiron lore. The cheerleaders traditionally lead the Tigers onto the field before and after halftime of every game. The 1989 Tiger cheerleaders captured the National Championship in the annual Universal Cheerleading Association competition.

Special thanks to Peter Finney of the New Orleans Times-Picayune who has documented the history of LSU football in his book "Fighting Tigers", the late Marty Mule' of the New Orleans Times-Picayune who penned "Eye of the Tiger" in celebration of LSU's football centennial in 1993, and to the late historian H. Warren Taylor whose relentless pursuit of accurate information and record-keeping in the early years of LSU athletics has kept alive the accomplishments of Tiger athletes in football, basketball, track and boxing dating back to the late 1800s.

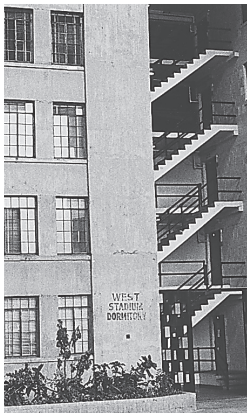


CUBA: TIGERS ON FOREIGN SOIL

LSU was the first college team to play on foreign soil when, in 1907, coach Edgar R. Wingard took his Tigers to Havana for an international gridiron bout. The University of Havana team had dominated every American service team it had played, but had never encountered football collegiate style. The finesse of the Tigers took the big Cuban team by surprise on Christmas Day at Almendares Park and LSU walked away with a convincing 56-0 victory before 10,000 fans.

DORMITORIES

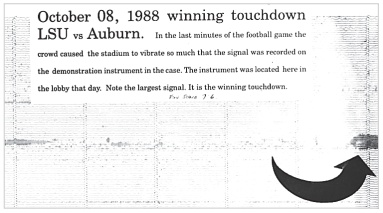
Tiger Stadium once housed some 1,500 dorm rooms, home to many LSU students over the years. The concept was introduced in 1928 by T.P. "Skipper" Heard, who learned that LSU president James Smith proposed to use $250,000 to build new dormitories on the LSU campus. Heard sold Smith on the idea of raising the stands on both the East and West sides of the stadium and extending them to the end zones, then constructing the dorms inside the stadium. Thus the University got its dorms and Tiger Stadium's capacity increased by 10,000 seats in 1931. Today, the dorms are used for storage.



THE GOLDEN BAND FROM TIGERLAND

The grandest band in all the land, the Golden Band from Tigerland, is as much a part of Saturday nights in Tiger Stadium as the team itself. Among the many favorites of LSU fans is the band's traditional pregame march down North Stadium Drive from the Band Hall to the tune of "Hold That Tiger." That tradition is a carry-over from the old pregame parades through downtown Baton Rouge. Castro Carazo was the man handpicked by Louisiana Governor Huey Long in 1935 to revamp the Tiger band. Carazo and Long together wrote fan favorite "Touchdown for LSU," and two years later, Carazo also penned the official LSU fight song, "Fight For LSU." The tradition of the LSU Tiger Marching Band continues today. The LSU Tiger Marching Band is made up of some 325 musicians, Golden Girls and Colorguard members. In 1997, the band was selected as the top band in the Southeastern Conference by SEC band directors. In December 2001, the band was awarded the Sudler Trophy, the highest honor a collegiate marching band can receive. The award has been called "the Heisman Trophy of marching bands," according to Frank Wickes, director of LSU bands from 1980-2010 who passed away in 2020. A state-of-the-art, 17,640 square foot band hall opened its doors on April 26, 2012.

EARTHQUAKE GAME (1988)



October 08, 1988 winning touchdown
LSU vs Auburn. In the last minutes of the football game the crowd caused the stadium to vibrate so much that the signal was recorded on the demonstration instrument in the case. The instrument was located here in the lobby that day. Note the largest signal. It is the winning touchdown.

With time winding down and LSU saddled with fourth-and-10 at the Auburn 11-yard line, quarterback Tommy Hodson found running back Eddie Fuller in the back of the endzone for the game-winning touchdown as LSU stunned fourth-ranked Auburn, 7-6, in Tiger Stadium. In what is now known as the "Earthquake Game", Hodson's touchdown pass to Fuller with 1:41 left in the contest caused such a thunderous explosion from the 79,341 fans in Tiger Stadium, the LSU Department of Geology registered vibrations on a seismograph machine at the exact moment the TD was scored.

THE GOLDEN BOOT

The Golden Boot is a trophy awarded each year to the winner of the Battle for the Golden Boot football matchup between LSU and SEC rival Arkansas. The trophy was introduced to the series prior to the 1996 season. Molded from 24-karat gold in the shape of the states of Arkansas and Louisiana, the trophy stands four feet in height, weighs nearly 200 pounds and is valued at $10,000. It is believed to be the heaviest trophy awarded in a college football rivalry. After a win in the series, the victorious team keeps the trophy until the following year's matchup.

THE GOLDEN GIRLS

Taking the field with the Tiger Band at LSU for the first time in 1959, the prestigious LSU Golden Girls represent the oldest and most established danceline on the LSU campus. The line consists of a very talented group of young ladies who are chosen each spring by a special audition. The Golden Girls are one of the feature units with the LSU Tiger Band and perform for all home LSU football games and selected campus events, as well as, away games with the full Tiger Band. The 2019 season represented the 60th anniversary of the group's foundation.

FIGHTING TIGERS

In the fall of 1896, coach A.W. Jeardeau's LSU football team posted a perfect 6-0-0 record, and it was in that pigskin campaign that LSU first adopted its nickname, Tigers. "Tigers" seemed a logical choice since most collegiate teams in that year bore the names of ferocious animals, but the underlying reason why LSU chose "Tigers" dates back to the Civil War. During the "War Between the States," a battalion of Confederate soldiers comprised of New Orleans Zouaves and Donaldsonville Cannoneers distinguished themselves at the Battle of Shenandoah. These Louisiana rebels had been known by their contemporaries as the fighting band of Louisiana Tigers. Thus, when LSU football teams entered the gridiron battlefields in their fourth year of intercollegiate competition, they tagged themselves as the "Tigers." The 1955 LSU "fourth-quarter ball club" helped the moniker "Tigers" grow into the nickname, "Fighting Tigers."

HALL OF FAMERS

Sixteen members of the LSU football community have the distinction of being inductees into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame that was established in 1947. In 1956, former end Gaynell Tinsley was enshrined in South Bend, Ind., as LSU's first Hall of Famer. Ken Kavanaugh (1963), Abe Mickal (1967), Doc Fenton (1971), Tommy Casanova (1995), Billy Cannon (2009) Jerry Stovall (2010), Charles Alexander (2012) and Bert Jones (2016), Glenn Dorsey (2021) and Kevin Faulk (2022). Five LSU coaches are members of the NFF Hall of Fame, a list that includes the legendary Charles McClendon. Six former LSU players have earned the highest honor of being inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, with Alan Faneca joining the ranks in 2021. Steve Van Buren was the first in 1965. Y.A. Tittle, who went on to become one of the greatest quarterbacks in history, was inducted in 1971 after a storied career with the Baltimore Colts, San Francisco 49ers and New York Giants. Four-time NFL championship winner and 1962 NFL MVP Jimmy Taylor was enshrined in 1976. Super Bowl champion Johnny Robinson and All-Pro offensive lineman Kevin Mawae were inducted at Canton in 2019. Thirty-six LSU football players are also members of the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame with Wendell Davis as the most recent inductees in the summer of 2023.

H-STYLE GOALPOSTS

Unknown to many Tiger fans, the LSU football team still runs onto the field under the same crossbar that stood as part of the north end zone goal post in Tiger Stadium as early as 1955. It had long been a tradition that the LSU football team entered the field by running between the goalposts when the new "T-style" goalposts came into vogue. By virtue of tradition, the old "H-style" posts stood on the field of Death Valley until they were removed in 1984. Part of the crossbar, however, was kept and mounted above the door of the Tiger Den through which the Tigers run onto the field each game. In 1993, in celebration of the centennial of LSU football, the "H-style" goalposts were returned to the end zones of Tiger Stadium. Today, Tiger Stadium is one of only three college stadiums in the nation that still use the "H-style" goalposts. Doak Campbell Stadium at Florida State and Martin Stadium at Washington State are the others.

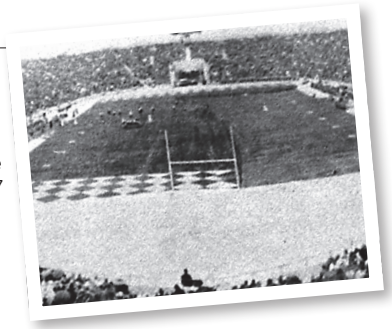
HALLOWEEN NIGHT

Drama on Halloween is as traditional as pumpkins and goblins for LSU and Ole Miss. These schools have met seven times on Oct. 31 with the series tied at 3-3-1. The most notable game on All Hallow's Eve was the 1959 thriller that saw Billy Cannon return a punt 89 yards to spur a 7-3 Tiger victory. The Tigers and Rebels next met on Halloween in 1964. Ole Miss led 10-3 late in the fourth quarter in Death Valley when LSU scored a touchdown to make it 10-9. Quarterback Billy Ezell then threw to Doug Moreau in the front corner of the endzone on the two-point conversion, at nearly the exact point where Cannon had crossed the goal line five years earlier for an 11-10 win. There was a 17-year span before the teams played on Oct. 31 again, this time at Jackson in 1981. A seesaw battle ended with a 46-yard field goal off the foot of LSU's David Johnston as time expired for a 27-27 tie. In the most recent Halloween meeting, the teams engaged in the first overtime game in LSU history at Oxford in 1998, but Ole Miss emerged with a 37-31 win. LSU is 8-7-1 all-time on Halloween night, including a 42-0 shutout of Tulane in Tiger Stadium in 2009.

HALLOWEEN RUN

There have been longer scoring plays in LSU football history, but Billy Cannon's 89-yard punt return against Ole Miss in 1959 is simply, and undeniably, the most famous play in Tiger gridiron records. In fact, some consider it one of the most memorable in college football history. It was an eerie, misty and humid Halloween night, and the Rebels of Mississippi took a 3-0 lead into the final quarter, threatening to end an 18-game LSU win streak. On third and 17 from the Ole Miss 42, the Rebels' Jake Gibbs punted 47 yards to the Tiger 11 where Cannon hauled it in on the bounce. Cannon careened off seven tacklers down the east sideline and darted 89 yards to immortality. Some say it may have been that run that assured Cannon of the Heisman Trophy he received at season's end. LSU celebrated the 50-year anniversary of the legendary play in 2009 as Cannon was recognized on the field during the Tigers' game with Tulane on Halloween night.

ICE BOWL (1946)



The Tigers of 1946, though not one of Bernie Moore's two SEC Championship teams, was surely one of Moore's finest squads. Only a 26-7 loss at the hands of SEC foe Georgia Tech spoiled the season and the Y.A. Tittle-led Bayou Bengals landed in the Cotton Bowl against Arkansas and star Razorback Smackover Scott. But ice, sleet and snow pelted Dallas on that Jan. 1 as LSU filled oil drums with charcoal and started fires for makeshift heaters on the field. Fans built fires in the stands and watched the Tigers roll to 271-54 advantage in total yardage and a 15-1 lead in first downs. Those numbers, however, didn't equate on the scoreboard that showed 0-0 at game's end. The Tigers finished the season with a 9-1-1 record in Moore's penultimate season as head coach.

JERSEY 18

Jersey No. 18 was an LSU tradition born in 2003 when quarterback Matt Mauck guided the Tigers to their first national championship since 1958. His number became synonymous with success – both on and off the field – as well as a selfless attitude that has become the epitome of being an LSU football player. After his final year with the Tigers, Mauck passed jersey No. 18 down to running back Jacob Hester, who then helped LSU to another national title in 2007. Each season, a Tiger player is selected to wear the No. 18.

JERSEY 7

A new LSU tradition began in 2011 when one of the most dynamic playmakers in LSU history turned over his No. 7 jersey to the next player up as a force to be reckoned with. NFL Pro Bowler Patrick Peterson's three seasons wearing No. 7 made it a coveted number for future Tigers to wear. The jersey moved to the offensive side of the ball as RB Leonard Fournette inherited the number from Peterson. Fournette had this to say about wearing No. 7, "I know the history behind the number. No. 7 is the number at LSU for big-time playmakers like myself, Patrick Peterson and Tyrann Mathieu. That number changes the program and there's a lot to come from players wearing that number." When Brian Kelly began his tenured as head coach, he updated the tradition for No. 7 to go to the best playmaker on the team from Louisiana.

HELMETS

LSU's helmet is a striking tradition that has seen its share of changes since the program's inception. From 1947-55, a dark gold helmet was used by the Tigers. Then in 1956, head coach Paul Dietzel entered his second season by introducing a new helmet design. The helmet was changed to a yellow gold, similar to that of the Green Bay Packers, that featured a white one-inch center stripe and purple three-quarter-inch flanking stripes. It is a look that has become synonymous and identified with LSU football since its unveiling. The 1957 Tigers had the addition of black two-inch "NCAA style" identifying numerals placed on each side of the helmet and that size expanded to three inches in 1958, the year of LSU's first national title. In 1972, a logo first appeared on the helmet. In 1977, the logo was modified, and that look remained until 2013. In 2014, the Tiger head logo was updated with a fresh look and is now utilized by several LSU Athletics programs.

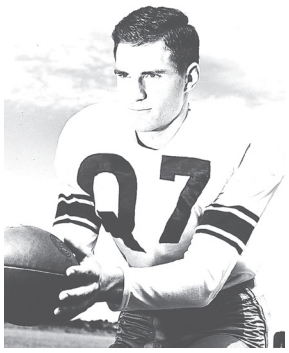
THE KINGFISH

No single person can be credited for building LSU football into the entity it is today, but one of the men who most influenced the popularity of Tiger football was neither a player nor a coach. The "Kingfish," Louisiana Governor Huey P. Long, never shied from using his political influence to aid the cause of LSU football. Two examples: In 1934, athletic director T.P. Heard reported low advance sales for the LSU-SMU game because of a circus coming to town the night of the game. Long contacted the proper Barnum and Bailey representatives and informed them of a near-forgotten animal-dipping law. The show was canceled and LSU-SMU ticket sales took off. Later that same year, Long used his influence to "entice" passenger agents of the Illinois Central Railroad to lower fares for LSU students traveling to a road football game. When Long threatened to reassess the value of railroad bridges in the state from $100,000 to $4 million, the railroad generously agreed to give LSU students a $6 roundtrip fare for the Vanderbilt game that season.

NIGHT GAMES IN TIGER STADIUM

The tradition of playing night games in Tiger Stadium began on Oct. 3, 1931, when LSU downed Spring Hill, 35-0, under the lights. Night football was introduced by T.P. "Skipper" Heard, then graduate manager of athletics and later athletics director. Several reasons were cited for playing LSU games at night, including avoiding the heat of afternoon games, avoiding scheduling conflicts with Tulane and Loyola, and giving more fans the opportunity to see the Tigers play. An immediate increase in attendance was noted, and night football soon became ingrained in LSU football lore. LSU has traditionally played better at night than in the light of day. LSU is 358-112-13 in night games all-time in Tiger Stadium and 147-25 since 2000.

NUMBERING SYSTEM



LSU, in 1952, introduced a unique - and short-lived - jersey numbering system. The idea of coach Gaynell "Gus" Tinsley and publicity director Jim Corbett, the system utilized an abbreviation of the player's position on his jersey. Thus, ends, guards and tackles wore the letters "E", "G" and "T" followed by a single-digit number. The right side of the line wore even numbers, the left side odd numbers. In similar fashion the centers, quarterbacks, left halfbacks, right halfbacks and fullbacks wore"C", "Q", "L", "R" and "F", respectively, followed by single-digit numerals. The 1953 LSU yearbook, the Gumbo, boldly predicted that the new system "may revolutionize the football jersey manufacturing industry." It didn't.

PURPLE & GOLD

There is some discrepancy in the origin of Royal Purple and Old Gold as LSU's official colors. It is believed that those colors were worn for the first time by an LSU team in the spring of 1893 when the LSU baseball squad beat Tulane in the first intercollegiate contest played in any sport by Louisiana State University. Team captain E.B. Young reportedly hand-picked those colors for the LSU squad. Later that year, the first football game was played. On Nov. 25, 1893, football coach/chemistry professor Dr. Charles Coates and some of his players went into town to purchase ribbon to adorn their gray jerseys as they prepared to play the first LSU gridiron game. Stores were stocking ribbons in the colors of Mardi Gras - purple, gold, and green - for the coming Carnival season. However, none of the green had yet arrived at Reymond's Store at the corner of Third and Main streets. Coates and quarterback Ruffin Pleasant bought up all of the purple and gold stock and made it into rosettes and badges.

THE RAG

The Rag was the traditional spoils of victory in the LSU-Tulane rivalry for many years. This flag, decorated half in LSU's colors of purple and gold and the other half adorned in the green and white of Tulane, was held for one year by the victorious school until the game the following season. The whereabouts of the original flag are unknown; however, a new version of The Rag was awarded to the LSU squad after the Tigers defeated the Greenies, 48-17, in the 2001 season opener in Death Valley.

OLE WAR SKULE

LSU began in 1860 as the Louisiana State Seminary of Learning and Military Academy, shortly before the beginning of the Civil War. In fact, LSU's first superintendent was Civil War commander William Tecumseh Sherman. "Ole War Skule" was formerly a popular reference to LSU, as was the term "Old Lou."

PERFECT SEASONS

LSU has had seven unblemished seasons in its history. The Tigers first went undefeated and untied in 1895 under head coach A. P. Simmons with a 3-0 record, but the first truly great LSU team is considered to be the 1908 squad led by one of the most legendary players to wear the Purple and Gold - Doc Fenton. That 1908 team, coached by Edgar R. Wingard, soared through a 10-game schedule without a loss or tie as Fenton scored an incredible 125 points on the year. It was 50 years before LSU would post another perfect season, winning the national championship in 1958 with an 11-0 mark. In 2019, the Tigers surged to the SEC and CFP titles with a perfect 15-0 record in a season regarded as "The Best Ever" by most college football historians.

SOUTH END ZONE

Whether it be the 1959 goal line stand that sealed victory for the Tigers against Ole Miss on the "Billy Cannon Run" night or Bert Jones' pass to Brad Davis as time expired to beat the Rebels in 1972, the south end zone of Tiger Stadium has become somewhat of an enigma for the sometimes strange and often memorable plays in LSU football. The Tiger defenders have put together numerous goal line stands at the south end zone, including the following games: 1985 Colorado State, 1985 Florida, 1986 North Carolina, 1986 Notre Dame, 1988 Texas A&M, 1991 Florida State, 1992 Miss. State and 1996 Vanderbilt. In 1988, the Tigers stymied the Texas A&M Aggies at the LSU 2-yard line despite the distraction of a bank of lights going dark midway through A&M's series of plays. For that series, LSU's defense was nicknamed the "Lights Out Defense." The first great goal line stand at that end of the field may have been in that 1959 game when Warren Rabb and Billy Cannon halted Ole Miss' Doug Elmore at the one-yard line for the 7-3 victory. Then, in 1971, the first and most memorable of LSU's three goal line stands against Notre Dame was at the 1-yard line at the South end of the field as Louis Cascio and Ronnie Estay hit the Irish's Andy Huff at the goal en route to a 28-8 Tiger victory.

Billy Cannon and Warren Rabb make a stop at the South End Zone.

TAILGATING

It has often been pondered whether the attraction of night football is because of the excitement of the atmosphere created by a game under the lights, the more pleasant weather of an evening after the sun has set, or because it allows more time for tailgating. If it is not football that people of south Louisiana crave, then it is food. Tiger fans arrive as early as Thursday evening for Saturday games, set up their motor homes and kick back for a weekend of cooking and enjoyment for two days until kickoff. A stroll across the LSU campus and through the parking lots is a veritable connoisseur's treat. Common entrees include crawfish, boiled shrimp, and jambalaya and, on occasion, one will run across a cochon-de-lait (pig roast). In 2008, ESPN.com ranked LSU as the top tailgating destination in America. In 2010, Sporting News, proclaimed "Saturday Night in Death Valley" and Tiger tailgating as the top traditions in all of college football. LSU's legendary tailgating experience was named No. 1 by the Associated Press in a September 2010 poll and by CNN in the network's November 2010 survey.

VICTORY HILL

A pregame ritual for many Tiger fans is to line North Stadium Drive in the hours before kickoff to see the Tiger Marching Band in its walk from the band hall. The band pauses each game on the hill next to the Journalism Building to play "Tiger Rag," to the delight of the LSU throngs. Former head coach Curley Hallman began the tradition in the early 1990s of leading the team by foot down Victory Hill from Broussard Hall two hours before the game. That practice became so popular that Gerry DiNardo, Nick Saban, Les Miles, Ed Orgeron and Brian Kelly have continued the tradition, even though the team began to stay in a hotel the night before home games. The team buses drive to the top of Victory Hill between the Academic Center and Journalism Building in order for the players to make their traditional walk down. L-Club members (former football lettermen) are invited to join the team on the walk down Victory Hill, affirming the bond between past and present Tigers.

The Tigers celebrated the 2020 national title on the South Lawn of the White House.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Winning national championships carries the privilege of visiting Washington D.C., and touring the White House. The Tigers have traveled to the Nation's Capital following each of their three national championships in the 21st Century. Head coaches Nick Saban (2003 BCS title) and Les Miles (2007 BCS title) and their teams had the chance to meet President George W. Bush at the White House. Coach Ed Orgeron (2019 CFP title) and his squad were welcomed to the White House by President Donald Trump. The Tigers arrived in Washington D.C. on January 16, 2020, and took part in a national championship dinner at the Kennedy Center with the Louisiana Congressional Delegation. On the next day, the Tigers were granted a tour of the National Museum of African American History and Culture, which was followed by a tour of the White House and a meeting with President Trump. The Tigers then took a team photo on the steps of the United States Capitol and were welcomed to the floor of the Capitol.

WHITE JERSEYS

LSU is one of the few college football teams that traditionally wear white jerseys for home games. The tradition originated when LSU won its first national championship in 1958. Head coach Paul Dietzel had a habit of tinkering with the uniform every year. In 1958, he chose to wear white jerseys for LSU's home games, and the Tigers subsequently won the national championship. A superstitious man, Dietzel didn't change the uniform after that season. LSU continued to wear white jerseys for home games throughout the Charlie McClendon Era. When Jerry Stovall took over as head coach in 1980, he said the Tigers would occasionally wear purple jerseys so that home fans could see a different color. In 1982, the NCAA changed its jersey rule, requiring teams to wear dark colored jerseys for home games. The Tigers wore purple jerseys for all home games from 1983 to 1994. When Gerry DiNardo became head coach in 1995, he vowed to change the NCAA jersey rule. After petitioning the rules committee of the American Football Coaches Association, he personally met with each member of the NCAA Football Rules Committee. DiNardo's efforts were successful and the Tigers were allowed to wear white jerseys again beginning in 1995. A stipulation of the new rule was that the visiting team would have to give the home team permission to wear the white jerseys. The first team to deny LSU's request was DiNardo's former team, Vanderbilt. Instead of going back to purple jerseys, the Tigers took to the field in new gold jerseys. The SEC later adopted a league rule stipulating that the home team has sole discretion in determining its jersey color. Nick Saban became LSU's head coach in 2000 and continued the white jersey tradition, but with a twist. Saban decided that LSU would wear purple jerseys for all non-SEC games, except the home opener. That tradition continues today.

VOICE OF THE TIGERS

For more than 40 years, John Ferguson was known as the "Voice of the Tigers." Ferguson's distinctive baritone voice could be heard nationwide as few teams played night games during his tenure, which began in 1946. The most famous call of all plays, though, belongs to J.C. Politz who was the "Voice of the Tigers" in 1959 when Billy Cannon made his legendary 89-yard Halloween run. Ferguson later returned to the broadcast booth doing television for TigerVision broadcasts beginning in 1984. At that time, Jim Hawthorne took over the radio duties as the football, men's basketball and baseball "Voice of the Tigers." Hawthorne has called some of the greatest moments in LSU history, including play-by-play for the Tigers' 2003 and 2007 national championship seasons. After 32 seasons as "Voice of the Tigers," Hawthorne retired at the conclusion of the 2015-16 basketball season. Chris Blair took over as the "Voice of the Tigers" in February 2016. Blair described all of the scintillating moments of the Tigers' drive to the 2019 CFP National Championship.

"Billy Cannon watches it bounce, he takes it at his own 11, he comes back upfield to the 15, stumbles momentarily, he's at the 20, running hard at the 25, gets away from one man at the 30, still runs at the (inaudible) ...at the 35, at the 45... he's on the 50, he's in the clear on the 45, the 40 (inaudible due to crowd noise)...the 15, the 10, the 5 he scores! "Billy Cannon raced some 89 yards for a touchdown. Listen to the cheers for Billy Cannon as he comes off the field...great All-American!"

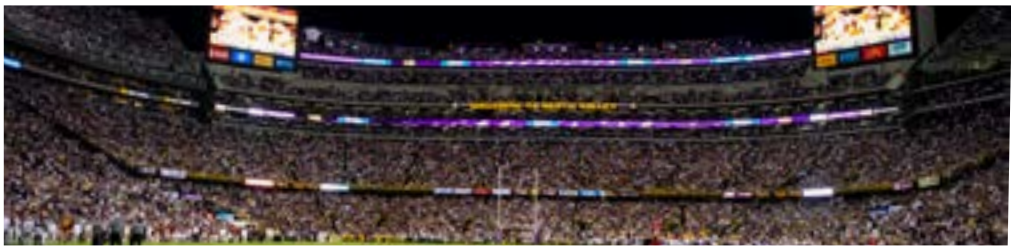
THE PRESERVATION OF TIGER STADIUM

In August 2010, LSU Athletics and the Tiger Athletic Foundation launched a campaign to preserve and restore the look of Tiger Stadium. The highly-successful campaign has enhanced the atmosphere in and around the iconic venue. With the expansion of the South End Zone in 2014, Tiger Stadium's capacity is 102,321. All of the projects were privately funded by TAF.



WEST & NORTH STADIUM PLAZAS

Prior to the start of the 2012 season, construction was completed on the first phase of the West Side plaza that included new gates, the All-American and Hall of Fame plazas, and the National Championship plaza that showcases the past, present and future of LSU football. Construction on the North Plaza of Tiger Stadium was completed prior to the 2013 season. This update maintained the great look and feel of Tiger Stadium while preserving the facility in a way that allows it to continue to function for years to come.

SOUTH END ZONE PROJECT

The South End Zone expansion was completed before the 2014 season. The expansion included 66 suites, approximately 3,000 club seats and 1,400 general public seats above the South End Zone bowl. The 2014 addition also featured two new HD scoreboards in the east and west corners of the South End Zone.

TIGER STADIUM WINDOWS

On Nov. 1, 2012, all 428 windows on the North End of Tiger Stadium were replaced, marking the initial phase in the Preservation of Death Valley. The 300 windows on the East and West Sides of Tiger Stadium were sponsored and replaced after the 2013 season. The new windows restored the original look of the stadium on the outside and provided interior protection from the elements.

BRIGHT LIGHTS

A state-of-the-art lighting system was installed prior to the 2012 season that turns the upper archways of the North End of the stadium purple and gold and lights the iconic "LSU" on the stadium's North scoreboard. Following an LSU win, the North End of the stadium lights up in "Victory Gold." Tiger Stadium in 2024 featured new video boards in the North End Zone, and in the east and west corners of the South End Zone. Boasting the latest in technology, the new video boards are among the biggest and best in college football.

"IT'S SATURDAY NIGHT IN DEATH VALLEY AND HERE COME YOUR FIGHTING TIGERS OF LSU!"

Hearing those words as the Tigers enter the stadium brings chills to even the casual LSU football fan and sends shivers to those on the opposing sideline. On football gamedays, Tiger Stadium becomes the fifth largest city in the state of Louisiana as over 100,000 fans pack the cathedral of college football to watch the Tigers play.

For LSU fans, there's nothing better than spending a night in Tiger Stadium. LSU home football games are events talked about year-round and happenings in Tiger Stadium are passed down from generation to generation.

For opponents, however, it's another story, as Tiger Stadium is an intimidating venue that has been called one of the most dreaded road playing sites in all of college football. Seating over 100,000 fans and nicknamed "Death Valley," poll after poll has proclaimed Tiger Stadium as one of the greatest sites anywhere for a football game.

No Place Like Home

LSU enters the 2026 season having won 153 of its 179 games in Tiger Stadium over the past 26 seasons. That stretch dates back to the start of the 2000 season and includes wins over 35 Top 25 teams. The Tigers established the school record for consecutive home victories with 22 from Oct. 24, 2009, to Oct. 13, 2012.

LSU is 153-26 at home since the 2000 season -- including perfect home records of 7-0 in 2004, 8-0 in 2006, 7-0 in 2010 , 6-0 in 2011, 7-0 in 2013, 7-0 in 2019 and 7-0 in 2023. Only six times since 2000 have the Tigers lost more than one home game.

In 2025, the Tigers posted a 6-1 home record and averaged 101,575 fans per game. LSU in 2024 also won six of its seven games in Tiger Stadium, averaging 101,235 fans per contest.

LSU in 2023 registered a perfect 7-0 home record and averaged 100,742 fans per game in Tiger Stadium.

The 2022 Tigers recorded a 6-1 home mark and averaged 100,596 fans per game. LSU in the span of three weeks in Tiger Stadium defeated two Top 10 teams, No. 7 Ole Miss and No. 6 Alabama.

LSU in 2021 posted a 5-2 mark in Tiger Stadium and averaged 94,808 spectators for its seven home contests. The Tigers recorded home wins over No. 14 Texas A&M and No. 20 Florida.

The Tigers played just four home games in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, and Tiger Stadium's capacity was limited to 25 percent in an effort to prevent the spread of the deadly virus.

LSU in 2019 outscored its home opponents by an average margin of 48-14. The Tigers' unblemished 2019 home record featured a victory over No. 7 Florida before a sold-out Saturday night crowd of 102,321. Just two weeks later, the Tigers posted a 23-20 win over No. 9 Auburn in a Death Valley afternoon contest with 102,160 in attendance.

In 2018, LSU beat No. 2 Georgia in one of three sold-out games that included a Top-5 showdown with top-ranked Alabama.

In 2017, LSU recorded a home win over No. 10 Auburn before 101,601 fans. The 2016 Tigers defeated No. 23 Ole Miss in Tiger Stadium and played top-ranked Alabama before a sell-out crowd of 102,321.

The Tigers in 2015 posted victories before three sell-out home crowds in excess of 102,000, including wins over 18th-ranked Auburn and eighth-ranked Florida.

The 2015 home schedule was marked by a pair of unusual occurrences. The season opener versus McNeese State was stopped in the first quarter due to severe lightning and eventually canceled when the lightning persisted throughout the evening. And, LSU in 2015 held an impromptu home game against South Carolina in Tiger Stadium after severe flooding in Columbia, S.C., the week prior to the game forced the contest to be moved to Baton Rouge.

The 2014 season featured the opening of the South End Zone Expansion, increasing Tiger Stadium's seating capacity to 102,321. LSU averaged a school-record 101,723 fans for seven home games, recording sold-out attendance figures of 102,321 for its home games against Mississippi State, Ole Miss and Alabama.

LSU in 2013 was undefeated (7-0) at home for the fourth time in nine seasons. The home schedule was highlighted by wins over No. 17 Florida and No. 9 Texas A&M.

The 2012 season saw the Tigers shatter the school total attendance record, packing in a combined 741,005 fans for eight games. The Tigers knocked off third-ranked South Carolina, 23-21,with a spectacular fourth quarter on October 13. The win was LSU's 22nd consecutive home triumph, representing a school record.

One of the most anticipated games in Tiger Stadium history occurred on November 3, 2012, against top-ranked Alabama. After weeks of buildup, a then school-record 93,374 fans and nearly 1,000 credentialed media saw the Tide escape with a 21-17 victory.

"DRACULA AND LSU FOOTBALL ARE AT THEIR BEST AFTER THE SUN GOES DOWN."

-Beano Cook, ESPN

However, the atmosphere that evening left an indelible image for many. ESPN personality Scott Van Pelt, attending his first LSU home game, said this two days later on his radio show: "There is nothing I would put ahead of that, that I've ever seen in any sport. When you're there, you don't want to miss anything."

Fans and media came from across the globe to attend the event. Alex Ferguson of Sky Sports UK wrote, "This has been one of the greatest experiences of my life, and any self-respecting sports fan has to go to a game in Tiger Stadium."

In 2011, the Tigers capped a perfect 12-0 regular season with a 41-17 victory over No. 3 Arkansas. A crowd of 93,108 -- at the time the third-largest in the stadium's history -- watched LSU erase a 14-0 deficit by outscoring the Razorbacks 41-3 the rest of the way. In six home games during its SEC Championship run, LSU outscored its opponents by a combined 253-57.

On November 8, 2008, LSU eclipsed the 93,000-fan mark for the first time in school history when 93,039 spectators welcomed back former coach Nick Saban and top-ranked Alabama. LSU fell to the Crimson Tide, 27-21 in overtime, in what was then the most to ever see a game in Tiger Stadium. That mark was surpassed in 2009 when once again the nation's top-ranked team, the Florida Gators, played under the lights on October 10. A then school-record 93,129 fans watched Florida defeat LSU, 13-3.

The Tigers posted a 6-1 home mark during their 2007 national championship season, including a thrilling 28-24 victory on October 6 over Florida that was played before a crowd of 92,910 and a national primetime audience on CBS. Legendary CBS Sports announcer Verne Lundquist to this day says it is the loudest he has ever heard a stadium during a broadcast.

The 2005 season saw Tiger Stadium play host to its first Monday night game as LSU dropped an overtime thriller to Tennessee after the game was postponed two days due to Hurricane Rita. The LSU-Tennessee contest was the most-watched college football game in the history of ESPN2 as 2.77 million homes tuned in.

Due to the devastation to New Orleans and the Louisiana Superdome by Hurricane Katrina, Tiger Stadium served as the playing site for four New Orleans Saints games in 2005, as well as hosting the Tulane-Southeastern Louisiana contest. In all, 11 games (seven NCAA and four NFL) were played in Tiger Stadium during the 2005 season.

Part of the lore of Tiger Stadium is the tradition of playing games at night, an idea that was introduced in 1931 versus Spring Hill (a 35-0 LSU victory). Since that first night game in 1931, LSU has played the majority of its games at night and the Tigers have fared better under the lights than during the day.

CBSSports.com's Dennis Dodd wrote in October 2009 of LSU's fabled night history, "It has turned the knees of All-Americans to goo. It has caused coaches to lose their coaching minds. It only happens at a special space at a special time. LSU can be up, LSU can be down, but LSU's best weapon remains ... sunset."

Since 1958, LSU is 289-73-4 (.795) at night in Tiger Stadium compared to a 51-28-3 (.640) record during the day in that span. Since 2000, LSU is 117-16 (.880) in Saturday night games in Death Valley.

LSU has averaged 77,371 spectators for its 455 contests in Tiger Stadium since the NCAA began compiling official attendance figures in 1957. Since the start of the NCAA's attendance compilations, LSU has finished in the nation's top 10 in average attendance in 61 of the past 68 seasons. (The NCAA did not keep official attendance records in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic). The Tigers have drawn 35,203,899 fans since 1957. LSU passed the 30,000,000-mark in all-time attendance in 2016.

Tiger Stadium first opened its gates to fans in the fall of 1924 as LSU hosted Tulane in the season finale. Beginning with that first game in Tiger Stadium, LSU has posted a 463-158-18 (.739) mark in Death Valley. LSU's overall home record since the start of football in 1893 is 546-178-20 (.747).

Testimonials

Tiger Stadium tradition has seen its share of national publicity as one of the most talked about venues in all of sports.

In 1998, Sport Magazine named Tiger Stadium "the most feared road playing site in America," and in 1996, ESPN named LSU's pre-game party the best in all of America. Those surveys supported the previous polls by Gannett News Service in 1995, The Sporting News in 1989 and the College Football Association in 1987, that depict Tiger Stadium as the most difficult place for a visiting team to play.

Sports Illustrated's Rick Reilly, in a column comparing college football to professional football, penned that "College football is LSU's Tiger Stadium at night." ESPN's Chris Fowler called LSU his favorite gameday experience in the Sports Illustrated's On Campus issue in 2003.

In 2002, after a 33-10 non-conference win over Miami (Ohio), UM coach Terry Hoeppner said of Tiger Stadium, "That's as exciting an environment as you can have. I thought the crowd was a factor for us because we had communication problems we haven't had at Michigan and Ohio State."

After a victory before a national television audience on ESPN in 2001, ESPN sideline reporter Adrian Karsten said, "Death Valley in Baton Rouge is the loudest stadium I've ever been in. There are very few stadiums in America worth a touchdown, but the Bayou Bengals certainly have that advantage in Tiger Stadium."

In 2007, the acclaim continued when The Bleacher Report ranked "Death Valley" as the third toughest venue in the world to play in. LSU's run to a national title and record crowds led ESPN.com to proclaim Tiger Stadium as "The Scariest Place to Play in America" for an opposing team in a list of stadium rankings.

Wright Thompson of ESPN.com wrote in 2008, "It was electric. When Death Valley is rocking, it seems as if it might actually take flight. On Saturday, I went back to Baton Rouge to see Alabama barely beat LSU, and was, once again, reminded that Tiger Stadium is the best place in the world to watch a sporting event."

The stadium's sheer noise and tradition has carried into a new decade. In 2010, The Sporting News proclaimed Tiger tailgating and "Saturday Night in Death Valley" as the top gameday tradition in all of college football. That same year, the Associated Press named Tiger Stadium as the top place to tailgate in college football.

Following the 2012 season, Athlon Sports wrote, "Be it the vast and unique tailgating menu or Richter Scale-inducing fans, few places in the nation can send chills down your spine like a game at Tiger Stadium. As one of the loudest and most rabid atmospheres in the nation, LSU boasts one of the most daunting home-field advantages in college football – especially at night."

Tiger Stadium was voted in 2021 the best Power 5 Stadium in the nation in a poll conducted by FOX, and ESPN in 2024 voted Tiger Stadium No. 1 in its poll of the Top 25 college football stadiums.

Great Moments

On November 5, 2022, No. 10 LSU saw an opportunity to beat No. 6 Alabama, and first-year head coach Brian Kelly elected to attempt a two-point conversion while trailing 31-30 in the first overtime period.

LSU quarterback Jayden Daniels sprinted to his right and completed the three-yard pass to freshman tight end Mason Taylor, who scored just inside the front-right corner of the South end zone to give the Tigers a 32-31 victory. On the first play of LSU's overtime possession, Daniels had scrambled 25 yards to paydirt, cutting the Crimson Tide advantage to 31-30 before the Tigers executed the game-winning two-pointer.

The home schedule of the 2019 national championship season was capped by the Senior Tribute prior to the Texas A&M game, when quarterback Joe Burrow entered Tiger Stadium wearing a "Burreaux" nameplate on the back of his jersey. "Burreaux" was an homage by the eventual Heisman Trophy winner to LSU and to the people of Louisiana.

The 2007 national championship season featured some of Tiger Stadium's most exciting moments, including a 28-24 win over Florida on Oct. 6. Top-ranked LSU overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to beat the ninth-ranked Gators in front of 92,910 fans – then the largest crowd in stadium history – and a primetime CBS national television audience.

Just two weeks later, Matt Flynn connected with Demetrius Byrd on a 22-yard TD pass with one second remaining to give LSU a 30-24 victory over Auburn in a game televised by ESPN. LSU rallied from deficits of 17-7 at halftime and 24-23 with three minutes left in the contest to capture the electrifying win.

Though already considered one of the most raucous stadiums in all of college football, the 2003 season saw Tiger Stadium take it to another level during LSU's national title run, as the team, along with the fans, captivated the national media almost on a weekly basis. CBS televised Matt Mauck's last-minute game-winning pass to Skyler Green against Georgia before a crowd of 92,251, while ESPN was on hand for a dominating 31-7 victory over Auburn.

The Tigers closed out the 2003 home slate with a 55-24 win over Arkansas before what was then the second-largest crowd in school history (92,213).

In 2001, the Tigers clinched a berth in their first SEC Championship Game with a 27-14 victory over Auburn in the season finale in Tiger Stadium. After the contest, thousands of Tiger fans spilled onto the stadium floor to celebrate the victory. The Auburn game was traditionally played earlier in the season, but the attacks of September 11 postponed the contest until the final week of the regular season.

In 2000, the goal posts came down on two occasions. Immediately after the Tigers upset then-No. 11 ranked Tennessee 38-31 in overtime, the capacity crowd of 91,682 flowed onto the field of Tiger Stadium to celebrate the victory. Hundreds of students lined the sidelines and the back of the north end zone as the Tigers held the Vols scoreless in overtime for the victory.

The goal posts fell again in the final home game of the 2000 season as the Tigers posted a 30-28 win over Alabama, their first victory over the Crimson Tide in Tiger Stadium since 1969.

The goal posts fell for the first time in 1997, as all of America witnessed one of the most explosive nights in the history of the grand stadium when the Tigers upended No. 1-ranked Florida before a national television audience. A sea of Tiger fans swamped the floor of Deathy Valley as both goal posts came crashing down -- a scene that was replayed countless times on college football highlight shows.

One of the most famous moments in Death Valley history took place on "The Night The Tigers Moved the Earth," Oct. 8, 1988. When Tiger quarterback Tommy Hodson threw to Eddie Fuller for a winning touchdown against Auburn, the explosion of the crowd was so thunderous that it caused an earth tremor that registered on a seismograph meter in LSU's Geology Department across campus.

Then there was the night the Tigers nearly upset No. 1-ranked Southern California before a sellout crowd on September 28, 1979. The Tigers came up short, but the crowd roared from kickoff to final whistle in a game many ardent LSU followers rank as the loudest in stadium history.

And, of course, there was Halloween night 1959, when Billy Cannon made his famous 89-yard punt return to lead No. 1 LSU past No. 3 Ole Miss. Legend has it that families living near the campus lakes came running out of their homes in fear of the noise erupting around them.

Those are the highlights, some of which have shaped the character of this great stadium. But week in and week out each fall, a new chapter unfolds in the history of Death Valley.

Aside from football, Tiger Stadium has served as a tremendous concert venue, most recently playing host to a Zach Bryan performance in March 2026. Death Valley was the site for the Garth Brooks show in April 2022 that attracted over 100, 000 fans.

From 2010-16, and again in 2019, Death Valley played host to "Bayou Country Superfest," a three-day country music festival that featured the likes of Taylor Swift, Blake Shelton, Kenny Chesney, Tim McGraw, Zac Brown Band, Rascal Flatts, Keith Urban, Carrie Underwood, Jason Aldean and Luke Bryan.

History

The home of one of football's proudest traditions, Tiger Stadium once served as a dormitory for approximately 1,500 students, and while Broussard Hall, then LSU's athletics dormitory, was being renovated during the fall of 1986, the LSU football players lived in Tiger Stadium.

The original phase of construction was completed in 1924. This first phase included the East and West stands, which seated about 12,000. Seven years later (1931), the sides were extended upward to accommodate an additional 10,000 fans, raising the capacity to 22,000. In 1936, the stadium seating capacity was increased to 46,000, with the addition of 24,000 seats in the North End, making Tiger Stadium into a horseshoe configuration.

The next phase of construction took place in 1953 when the stadium's South End was closed to turn the horseshoe into a bowl, increasing the seating capacity to 67,720.

The original upper deck atop the West stands was completed in 1978, and it added 8,000 seats to the stadium's capacity. More seating in two club level sections, which flanked the existing press box, brought the total addition to approximately 10,000 seats and raised the stadium's capacity to approximately 78,000.

Refurbishing began on the stadium in the summer of 1985, when the East and West stands were waterproofed, and 25,000 chair back seats were added to replace the older "bench" type seats. Another phase of improvements was completed in 1987 when the North and South stands were waterproofed and newer bleachers were again installed to replace the older ones.

The playing field was moved 11 feet south in 1986 to provide more room between the back line of the North End Zone and the curvature of the stadium fence that surrounds the field. It also put the playing area in the exact center of the arena's grassy surface.

Prior to the 1987 season, more seats were installed at the upper portion of the West lower stands in Tiger Stadium. Also, the stadium's seating arrangement was renumbered to make all seats a uniform size. The addition of bleacher seating in 1988 brought the capacity to 80,150, but the elimination of some bleacher seating after the 1994 season dropped the capacity to 80,000.

Now the fifth-largest on-campus stadium, Tiger Stadium continues to provide fans with the ultimate college football experience. Prior to the 2000 season, 11,600 seats were added with the installation of the East Upper Deck, bringing the capacity to nearly 92,000. In addition to the new East Upper Deck, 70 skyboxes, called "Tiger Dens," were built, giving Tiger fans luxury accommodations. The addition of the 11,600 seats in 2000 marked the first expansion to Tiger Stadium since 1978, when the original West Upper Deck was completed.

The distinctive environment of Tiger Stadium became even more pronounced in 2005 as the ambitious West Upper Deck project was virtually completed. Construction on the project -- which began immediately after LSU's home finale against Ole Miss in November of 2004 - carried a $60 million price tag and rebuilt over 3,200 special amenity seats as a well as a state-of-the-art press box. The West Side renovation, which included the removal and rebuilding of the upper deck to mirror the East Side upper deck, was completely finished during the 2006 season.

In 2009, major technological advances were made when Tiger Stadium added an 80-foot wide high-definition video board to the North End Zone of the facility.

In August 2010, the Department of Athletics and the Tiger Athletic Foundation launched a campaign to preserve and restore the look of Tiger Stadium. The 428 windows on the North Side of the stadium were completely refurbished. The 300 windows on the East and West Sides of the stadium were completed for the 2013 season.

Prior to the 2012 season, construction was completed on the first part of the West Side plaza that included new gates, All-American and Hall of Fame plazas and the national championship plaza that showcases the past, present and future of LSU football. Construction on the North Plaza of Tiger Stadium was completed prior to the 2013 season.

The 2012 season saw a new tradition established at Tiger Stadium. Following an LSU victory, the North End of the stadium lights up in "Victory Gold." The unique look is a part of a state-of-the-art lighting system that was installed prior to the 2012 season that turns the upper archways of the North End of the stadium to purple and gold. Also prior to the 2012 campaign, letters spelling out "Tiger Stadium" were installed on the West Side.

In April 2012, a new era of Tiger Stadium was unveiled, as plans were announced for the South End Zone Expansion. Construction was completed prior to the 2014 season for 66 suites, approximately 3,000 club seats above the existing South End Zone seats, and 1,400 general public seats above the new suite and club seating. The project, privately funded by Tiger Athletic Foundation, brought the capacity of Tiger Stadium to 102,321.

Tiger Stadium in 2024 featured new video boards in the North End Zone, and in the east and west corners of the South End Zone. Boasting the latest in technology, the new video boards are among the biggest and best in college football.

Tiger Stadium also featured new LED lights in 2024, allowing for in-game light shows and other capabilities.

A total of 11 LED ribbon boards – totaling more than 2,350 linear feet – were installed on the fascia on the east, west and south sides of Tiger Stadium. The new digital technology produces animations, graphics and game statistics.

LED lights have also been installed in the Chute – where the Tigers take the field – as well as the field tunnels.
